Sports On CBWT

CBC Television Crews Film W.I.F.U. Games

The Game of the Week features complete football games on film—play-by-play coverage by auricon camera. This week's game, to be shown Friday night on CBWT-Winnipeg, will be the B.C. Lions vs. the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, played in Winnipeg.

The CBWT film camera crew is shown here filming the Winnipeg-Vancouver game in Winnipeg on September 13. MYRON KUPCHUK is on camera assisted by technician JOHN STEWART (foreground).

SPORTS coverage is one of the increasing demands of CBC-TV. The latest addition to CBWT's sports programming is the Friday night Game of the Week series which has been covering Western Interprovincial Football Union games on film.

More than five hours each week is devoted to a variety of sporting events on CBWT. This includes actual competitions in football, wrestling and boxing, and feature presentation of such sports as tennis, golf, lacrosse and horse-racing on such programs as Jack Wells' Sports Parade, or the Vic Obeck Show, Junior Sports, the quiz program Sports Scholar, or Football Huddle which includes a chalk-talk by football notables like the Blue Bombers' Al Sherman on individual plays in recent football games.

RECITAL. Vina Barnden, pianist; from Montreal.

Two Preludes and Oriental Sketch (Rachmaninoff); The Maiden and the Nightingale (Granados); Nocturne in F Sharp Major (Chopin); Scherzo in C Sharp Minor (Chopin).

Miss Barnden is a native of Australia, now living in Montreal.

W-10:30 a.m. K-9:30 a.m. X-9:30 a.m.

IN HIS STEPS.

Religious drama, scripts by Clare Slater, Charles Israel, Gordon Meyers, Toronto; Margaret Adair, Montreal; Vida Archibald, Winnipeg. Edited by Rev. Brian Freeland, CBC Toronto; Rupert Caplan, producer; from Montreal. First cycle, the kingdom of David, by Charles Israel.

The series replaces the Way of the Spirit broadcasts of former years. Several cycles designed to cover an episode of biblical history will be presented. The first of these, running nine weeks, deals with the period of David's rule, about 1,000 B.C. The intention is to re-create in full colour and detail the lives of the people of that time and place. "We have chosen to show the establishment of the kingdom," the editor says, "because it is a theme which will appear in the New Testament plays later in the season. It was of the seed of David that Christ was born." The opening cycle outlines the development of the Hebrew nation under Saul, early battles with the Philistines, and the classic story of the friendship of David and Jonathan. Threatened by Saul, David withdraws to the desert to organize a band of outlaws. He is anointed by Samuel. The death of Saul and Jonathan follows, and David, after a time, takes the throne. The tale of David and Bathsheba is told, and the final script deals with the building of the temple by Solomon.

W-12:30 p.m. K-11:30 a.m. X-11:30 a.m.

WORLD MUSIC FESTIVALS. Transcriptions made at the Bayreuth Festival by James Fasset of CBS. From CBS. Mr. Fasset records excerpts from Richard Wagner's opera Tannhouser, with Ramon Vinay, tenor; Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau, baritone; and Gre Brouwenstijn, soprano.

W-2:00 p.m. K-1:00 p.m. X-1:00 p.m.

CRITICALLY SPEAKING. Paul Wright on radio; Clyde Gilmour on movies; book reviewer to be announced. Western reviewers will take regular monthly assignments in the radio review section of this program in the fall and winter season. Starting Oct. 10, Chester Duncan of Winnipeg will be heard on the second Sunday of each month, and on the third Sunday, starting Oct. 17, Basil Dean of Calgary will be the reviewer. Duncan is an assistant professor of English at the University of Manitoba. Dean is a Calgary newspaperman, who for the past two years has reviewed the Couchiching Conference for CBC.

W-3:30 p.m. K-2:30 p.m. X-2:30 p.m.

CANADIAN SCENE.

Documentary program prepared by Ken Homer, special events reporter, CBC Halifax, and Ross McNaughton, CBC operator, Halifax, during a flight to Resolute Bay on Cornwallis Island.

With a party of radio, TV, and newspaper men, the two CBC representatives flew from Montreal to Churchill, Manitoba, in a C-119 of the R.C.A.F. Air Movement Unit. From Churchill they flew by R.C.A.F. North Star to Resolute Bay, in the Franklin District, N.W.T. Films made on the expedition will also be edited for use on the CBC TV network. The landscape north of Churchill, according to Homer, was "awe-inspiring." "It would be ideal," he said, "for a movie about earth men landing on another planet. The different colours and the bleak terrain were something quite outside my experience." Today's broadcast covers the flight to Resolute Bay. The return journey aboard the supply ship C. D. Howe will be described next week, with visits to Arctic Bay, Frobisher Bay, and Craig Harbour.

W-4:00 p.m. K-3:00 p.m. X-3:00 p.m.

ASK THE WEATHERMAN.

During October, the weatherman will discuss ways in which weather information can be of assistance to manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. The first talk today will describe how the skills which helped to solve the problems of the Normandy invasion are being applied to the needs of the business man. On Oct. 10, he will discuss the uses to which weather information can be put by department stores, bakeries, milk companies and storekeepers. On Oct. 17 and 24, he will consider the weather in relation to advertising and public utilities. The speaker is Rube Hornstein of Ottawa.

W-5:05 p.m. K-4:05 p.m. X-4:05 p.m.

SUNDAY CHORALE.

Choir conducted by Filmer Hubble; Hugh Bancroft, organist; Frank Stanley, producer; from Winnipeg.

Praise to the Holiest (Thomas Haweis); The Lord Will Not Suffer Thy Foot to be Moved (Bach); Ave Verum (Mozart); Jesu, Grant Me This, I Pray (Gibbons); Come, O Blessed Lord (Tchaikovsky); Love Divine (Pritchard); O Thou, the Central Orb (Charles Wood).

Today's program marks World Communion Sunday.

Betty Tomlinson

CBC Alberta Morning Commentator

As she had never seen a mountain, at least a tall one, she came to Alberta and she's never been sorry. The program she handles regularly was established when she came, but Miss Tomlinson has increased its audience and its scope by getting around the country and also by developing Calgary angles one week out of four.

She is left to decide her own topics. This was tough at first, for she knew neither the people nor the country. But she found that by following the news and, when interviewing, trying to get from one person what the average person would want to know, she gradually developed her own methods of operation, and as her listeners grew, their letters broadened the field.

As she had never taken a course in radio work, she developed her own style of delivery. She has never taken a voice lesson. When she is talking with someone on the air it is easy to be conversational . . . She trained herself to write informally and at a conversational pace. She thinks a course in journalism would help anyone interested in getting into her kind of work, and the best way to learn the radio business is to work first on a small station, just as working on a small newspaper is good training for journalism.

To be interviewed by Betty Tomlinson could be a frightening experience but for her friendliness and the fact that she gives her guest a confident feeling that even if he does not have a script, she at least knows what is going to happen . . .

Actually, she places the onus on herself. She has to ask questions designed to develop intelligent answers without wasting time. This is no mean feat in itself, for first you must find something interesting to talk about. A person doesn't need to have done anything out of the ordinary to be of interest, Miss Tomlinson says. The most interesting people are those who are aware of what is going on around them, regardless of where they may be. It helps if you don't take yourself too seriously . . . As for her listeners—about evenly divided between men and women—they seem to prefer stories of people and animals.—Ken Liddell, in the Calgary Herald.

CBC Wednesday Night

INTRODUCTION TO WEDNESDAY NIGHT. The Commonwealth-sponsored Colombo Plan to foster economic development in the countries of south and southeast Asia is holding ministerial-level meetings in Ottawa this week. This Wednesday Night program will be devoted to programs designed to focus attention on the Plan's accomplishments to date, and its problems. Background information on southeast Asia generally is to be provided, and the radio programs are planned generally as a greeting from Canadian radio to the many official delegates assembled in Ottawa from Australia, Ceylon, India, New Zealand, Pakistan, the United Kingdom, Burma, Nepal, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Indonesia and the United States. Thailand and the Phillipines, also, will be represented by observers.

W-7:15 p.m. K-7:45 p.m. X-7:45 p.m.

THE COLOMBO PLAN. The opening program on this Wednesday Night program devoted to the Commonwealth-sponsored Colombo Plan is Hours on the Minute Hand, a documentary by Len Peterson designed to show the magnitude and urgency of the problems confronting the Colombo delegates. It will introduce spokesmen from various countries, and Canadian experts who have participated in Colombo projects, as follows:

Suyoto Suryo-di-Puro, of the Indonesian Legation in Ottawa, speaking as representative of one of the newer member-countries; Dr. S. Gupta, first secretary, Indian Legation, Ottawa; Saine Koreski, secretary, Pakistan delegation; Nick Cavell, Administrator of Canadian participation, on the origin and scope of the Plan; Howard Trueman, who headed the agricultural Co-operative Mission which toured India, Pakistan, and Ceylon; John Henderson, manager of photographic survey project in West Pakistan; Gabriel Rousseau, who helped to set up technical schools in Cambodia and Ceylon; and J. E. O'Meara, economist, department of agriculture, Ottawa.

Donald Kerr, United Kingdom Information Office, Ottawa, will comment on the plan from the United Kingdom point of view. Charles Woodsworth, Ottawa newspaperman, and Gordon Burwash, National Film Board will describe Plan projects seen during a tour of south-east Asia.

Dr. W. C. Smith, director of Islamic studies, McGill University, will be heard in a special talk about religion and social change in south-east Asia.

A FOOL OF GOD. A program specially produced for the CBC by All-India Radio, on the life and work of Mahatma Gandhi as moralist, philosopher, and politician; script by K. P. Rungachary. The script employs a variety of writing techniques, from a poetic style with a biblical flavor, to a strict documentary narration reminiscent of the March of Time. Rungachary links Gandhi with two western "fools of God"—Thoreau and Tolstoy. He includes in his program a recording of Nehru's famous speech on the night of Gandhi's death in 1948: "... the light has gone out of our lives and there is darkness everywhere. And I do not quite know what to tell you and how to say it ..."

MUSIC FROM ASIATIC COUNTRIES. As another event to mark the Colombo Plan Conference, All-India Radio presents a half-hour of classical Indian music, introduced by Dr. Narayana Menon, one of India's leading musicologists. Dr. Menon will present four examples to show the purely melodic nature of Indian music. "It is music," he says, "which is conceived outside the western system of tonality. The melodic line has no harmonic implications; it neither needs nor implies harmony. The melodic line is very highly decorated, and is built on complex rhythms. In this matter of rhythm, Indian music is perhaps streets ahead of any other system I know of, unless it be the music of Java . . . A great deal of the performance is improvised. The sung music occupies a position of pre-eminence."

TRANS-CANADA MATINEE.

News From Our Village, Happy Bonnell; Music and Your Child; Will He Learn to Carry a Tune?; Ruth Harding; news commentary; songs; reading.

The problem of music and the small boy is discussed by Earl Terry, optimistically. Ruth Harding discusses consumer buying.

W-3:33 p.m. K-2:33 p.m. X-2:33 p.m.

LISTENING WITH LEGGAT. As a greeting to the "grand old man of English music," Ralph Vaughan Williams, who arrives in Toronto today in the course of a lecture tour in Canada and the United States, Donald Leggat has chosen two recordings of his music for discussion today.

Music by Ralph Vaughan Williams: Serenade to Music; From the Ballet Job—Satan's Dance of Triumph, and Minuet of the Sons of Job and Their Wives.

W-4:30 p.m. K-3:30 p.m. X-3:30 p.m.

THE QUIET FORCE.

A new 26-weeks' series for children and teen-agers, produced by the CBC in co-operation with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Scripts by Alan King, of Toronto; J. Frank Willis, producer; Monica Clare, children's supervisor; from Toronto.

In an introductory note to this series, Commissioner Nicholson of the R.C.M.P. said:

"In the eyes of members of the Force, it is indeed seldom that radio and film presentations of the R.C.M.P. are true to life, so I welcome a series in which the writer and the producer have set reality as their objective and will try to describe the force as it is, without artificial trimmings or glamorization

... When the series is over I trust the listeners, especially the younger listeners, will have a better understanding of the set-up and spirit of the Mounted Police. If this is the happy result, then all those who built and put on the show will get the sincere thanks of the Force they have pictured."

King, who will be narrator as well as writer in this series, says he plans to tell the story of the "Mounties" from the early days to the present, with emphasis on present-day activities. He has had the resources of the R.C.M.P. library and non-secret files at his disposal.

CBC Wednesday Night Forthcoming Highlights

SPOTLIGHT. This Winnipeg program, viewed daily, Monday to Friday, reaches its hundredth telecast October 18. There will be some quiet celebration in CBWT's studios and offices. Don Browne-Wilkinson is the producer. Interesting personalities passing day by day are interviewed, and topical events covered.

CBWT-6:30 p.m.

AMOS 'N ANDY. Kingfish Finds His Future, is tonight's episode. Kingfish is low in his mind. He feels he is so useless because he can't get and hold a job that he will go away and never return. Andy suggests that he take an aptitude test to see if he has any hidden talents, but when Kingfish does so, his papers get mixed up with someone's else, and thereby hangs a tale. Cast: Amos—Alvin Childress; Andy—Spencer Williams; Kingfish—Tim Moore; Sapphire—Ernestine Wade; Kingfish's mother-in-law—Amanda Randolph; Mr. Gladstone—Bill Walker; Mr. Walker—Roy Glenn; Mr. Harper—Milton Wood. Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, producers; Charles Barton, director; script by Bob Ross, Dave Schwartz.

CBWT-8:00 p.m.

KRAFT THEATRE.

The Light Is Gold, by Robert J. Shaw. Cast: Ed Gurley—Don Dubbins; Jane Harrison—Elizabeth Montgomery; Sarah Gurley—Lilla Skala; Walter—Russell Hardie; Bob—Jeff Harris; Martha—Janice Mattson; Tom—Frank Fenton; Randy—Bradford Dillman; Sally—Shirley Standlee.

Shaw wrote the play originally for television. The tale is of a poor boy, encouraged by a rich girl for whom he has formed an attachment, who crosses to the other side of the tracks only to learn that his side wasn't so bad after all. Don Dubbins has been seen in four previous telecasts in this series. Elizabeth Montgomery gained widespread acclaim for her performance in Late Love on Broadway.

W-7:00 p.m. K-10:00 p.m. X-10:00 p.m.

VANCOUVER THEATRE.

The Music Box, by Audrey Piggott; Raymond Whitehouse, producer; from Vancouver.

Audrey Piggott is a well-known 'cellist of Vancouver, often heard in CBC programs. Her play is set in England during World War II. A Canadian girl on leave visits a country mansion, and during her stay has a strange feeling that she has seen and done all these things before—a feeling confirmed when she meets the master of the household, an old man with whom she seems to share everything in common.

W-10:30 p.m. K-9:30 p.m. X-9:30 p.m.

Why?

I dislike CBC promoting TV. Why should you? You do not promote the world of newspapers or magazines. The TV I've seen is not worth promotion. I cannot imagine any entertainment which demands continual seeing being anything but a detriment to good living.

The LPRTs.

I was quite interested in the article on LPRTs in your issue of September 5-11. We were in Salmon Arm, B.C., this summer . . . and really enjoyed the interference-free reception from the local relay transmitter there.

tortion. This is more than can be said for reception in Calgary. Never an evening goes by without some fuss . . . Now if Edmonton rates a relay transmitter (that's what CBXA is, isn't it?) then so does Calgary. We are closer to the U.S. border and are just that much closer to American interference—from their radio stations, of course.

Sunday TV Notes

Burns; Frederick de Cordova, producer; from Hollywood. Cast: George Burns, Gracie Allen; Larry Keating as Harry Morton; Rolf Sedan as Mr. Beasley the postman; Harry von Zell.

A hard life is lived by George Burns—at least on TV. If you've ever played straight man to a cageful of monkeys, says he, then you'll know what it's like to be married to Gracie Allen. George was born in New York, and began his stage career, he says, as a singer, in taverns and saloons. Later he tried trick roller-skating, dance teaching, and vaudeville comedy.

THE PLAYHOUSE. Pursuit, with Richard Carlson as Joseph Lindquist. Lindquist is a pianist, a perfectionist whose greatest success could be spoiled for him by the slightest imperfection.

O.K., Skipper!—There's plenty on the air I don't care for, but I don't listen to it. I skip programs the way I skip whole pages of the newspapers... My criticism by selection may be a criticism of me, but I guess I'm in good company. We all have to skip.—Robert Ayre, on CBC.

Sunday TV Notes

When he regains consciousness after a hunting accident and learns he has lost an arm, he is hopeless about his future and obsessed with the idea that Dr. Ellsworth, who performed the amputation, was unjustified in this action. He seeks to kill the doctor. CBWT-4:00 p.m.

MY FAVOURITE HUSBAND. Domestic situation comedy starring Joan Caulfield and Barry Nelson as George and Liz Cooper; from CBS. Supporting cast: Gilmore Cobb—Bob Sweeney; Myra—Alix Tilton; Corey—Steve Dunn. This series is based on two novels by Isabel Scott Rorick, Outside Eden and Mr. and Mrs. Cugat. Joan Caulfield was the original Corliss Archer in Kiss and Tell on Broadway. CBWT-6:30 p.m.

TOAST OF THE TOWN.

The story of Darryl F. Zanuck; Marlo Lewis and Ed Sullivan, producers; John Wray, director-choreographer; costumes by Charles LeMaire; music conducted by Alfred Newman; from Hollywood. Cast to include: Jack Benny, Tony Martin, Tyrone Power, Clifton Webb, Shirley Temple, Dan Dailey, Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Gloria de Haven, and the Ken Darby Choir.

Darryl F. Zanuck is a Hollywood producer, and the program is designed to point up his contributions to the building of 20th Century-Fox into one of the top motion picture producing companies. It will introduce some of the stars associated with him in the course of his career. CBWT-8:00 p.m.

Tin-Eared Christians? It is presumptuous to assume that all good Christians are tin-eared.—William Krehm, on CBC.
