MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE
APPLAUDS:

Cary Grant

THERE is much talk of patriotism today; much more talk than "do." MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE—on behalf of its readers—bows to Cary Grant for a type of patriotism that really merits applause. A man with two countries (neither a naturalized American citizen nor yet eligible for service in Britain's armed forces), his service to both countries is almost awe-inspiring. And it's not publicity. Here are the facts: His contributions to British war relief will soon reach a quarter-million dollars. He has already donated his salary, $125,000, for "Philadelphia Story," and will donate the same amount, his salary for "The Man Who Came to Dinner," for the same cause. His salary for these two films was one dollar each—because legally he cannot work for nothing.

"Why shouldn't he do this?" people will ask. "He's wealthy, isn't he?" The answer is, friends, that Mr. Grant need only do a certain number of pictures on his contract, such as RKO's "Before the Fact," now being filmed. He does the extra pictures for one dollar each because it is the most effective way he can help. It is on record that no other man is giving more—or more sincerely.

Cary Grant, we salute you!

Honorable Mention:

GERARD DARROW, because this mite-size walking encyclopedia is the sensation of "Quiz Kids," was the sensation of Hollywood when he accompanied Jack Benny to Filmtown, where they exchanged broadcasts recently

ALICE FROST, radio's "Big Sister," who has been selected as the "best-dressed woman in radio" by the Fashion Academy. Miss Frost was recognized particularly for her excellent taste in simple but smart suits

JACK BENNY, because he journeyed all the way from Hollywood to Chicago to emcee the Greek relief program, demonstrating again the willingness of film and radio folk to do their utmost for many worthy causes

The Editors' Note:

ONLY YESTERDAY, Judy Garland was being hailed as a great child find. About the same time, color photography was finding its way into a few magazines. Color sittings were intricate affairs. Today, as Judy thinks of marriage, the color photograph on the cover shows her grown up. Color photography has grown, too. Movie-Radio Guide's Jack Albin made this shot without previous preparation.

THIS is your first issue of the new-style Movie-Radio Guide. As this is written, imagine the scene in the editorial rooms:

Presses in the basement and sub-basement are whining at high speed, vibrating the floor slightly. A battery of linotypes a story above are insatiably devouring molten metal, shaping it into type. Messengers, mail men, errand boys flow in a never-ending stream past the mail desk, depositing their loads of pictures, program schedules and packages, the raw material from which Movie-Radio Guide is made. A light flashes. The program department leans to its task, closes another edition. A bell rings. The teletype starts chattering. The latest movie news from Hollywood pours in. Late flashes from New York's radio front follow. Reporters covering Chicago rush into the office, sling their hats on a hook, pound their typewriters. By the time you look up again, they're gone. The teletype is open again.

Pictures by the hundreds flow across editors' desks in Hollywood, New York and Chicago. A dozen artists bend over their boards. From the presses come rough copies, the ink still wet. One edition, another, another...

Back of all this lie weeks of preparation. Presses have been changed to bring eight pages of rotogravure into the front of the publication, eight more into the back. New Stellar title type, more readable Vogue caption type, streamlined layouts—all these swiftly have become a part of the new, thrill-packed Movie-Radio Guide.

In the program section, note the ease with which you find your favorite program, the simplified guide to the best programs of the day in the best-listening boxes. Watch the calendar service each day—another added detail which is typical of Movie-Radio Guide SERVICE. Use it to remind yourself of dates of importance.

Coordinating the mass of information which becomes your greatest entertainment weekly each week is no small task. To gather and sift news and program detail, this publication maintains a staff of six persons in Hollywood alone, plus photographers. Six more in New York, four in Chicago cover the radio and motion-picture front constantly. This does not include the production staff, the program department, the composers, the pressmen, the circulation staff, the advertising department—all the necessary and vital components of publishing enterprise. In all, more than 150 men and women labor mightily, first to create your Movie-Radio Guide, then to produce and distribute it to you. Think of that next time you buy your copy.

Now the teletype is open again, making its staccato voice heard above the rumble of the presses. Hot metal sizzles in the linotype pots. Mail arrives. Trucks roll away from the loading platform. Typewriters clatter. Blended together they are a symphony of progress and change, of improvement.

The refrain of that symphony is simply this:

This is your first issue of the new-style Movie-Radio Guide—and ours, too. We hope you like it, like it, like it... —The Editors.

SCOOP TO END ALL SCOOPS on the legendary so-called romances of Charles Chaplin is this "grab" picture of the thrice-wed comedian dancing with Carole Landis. That Chaplin appeared in public without his much-headlined mate, Paulette Goddard, is not astonishing. Neither were cameramen surprised when he gave orders no pictures were to be taken when he took Glamour Girl Landis to Ciro's. A few nights later Movie-Radio Guide's alert Jack Albin found them at a table for two at the Mocambo, stole this picture when they arose to dance. They left the club separately to avoid other cameramen. Inset: Miss Carole Landis

GLAMOUR GIRL

Candid-Photo Album: College Girls vs. Stars

SHEPHERDED by the famous Maude Adams, who is a member of the dramatic department faculty, seven hundred students of the all-feminine Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., recently descended upon Hollywood as a part of their educational curriculum. They took screen tests, visited the studios, attended a star-studded party like that above at the Cocoanut Grove. Bill Holden, left, regaled girls with adventures of film-making while Brenda Marshall, his fiancée, looked at her wrist-watch, wished she could get Bill away from the roomful of college-age moderns. The girls? Here, indicated by number, are their reactions:

- (1) Keeps her eyes on food headed her way . . .
- (2) Pays polite and poised attention to Bill . . .
- (3) to (9), inclusive, have more exciting things to gossip about, pay little attention to their movie-star host . . .

(10) Looks at Brenda and Bill with a boredom fully the equal of Brenda's . . .

- (11) Has a grin for a Holden anecdote . . .
- (12) Turns on the personality, but nevertheless Bill is head over heels in love with Brenda . . .

(13) and (14) Close enough to hear above rattle of dishes, smile, listen politely . . .

BETTE DAVIS, voted the best actress by Stephens College girls, was the honored guest at the party. Here Bette congratulates student Martha Simpson, winner of "best dress" award. Girls' dresses are made on the campus at a cost of eight dollars each. Faculty has found best-dressed students are also invariably the best students

AT ANOTHER TABLE Walter Pidgeon relates his adventures for a more receptive group. There were 300 movie personalities at the Cocoanut Grove party and—man bites dog—they mobbed the famous Maude Adams for HER autograph! World's most memorable Peter Pan suffered severe case of writer's cramp. In the excitement two students fainted at such close contact with the famous; most of them, perfectly poised, were unimpressed

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT recently tossed his battered campaign hat into the ring a fourth time—but this time it was the auction-ring, with the proceeds going to swell the Motion Picture Relief Fund. Actors Edward G. Robinson and Melvyn Douglas hastily formed a syndicate, jointly paid $3,200 for the Stetson which F. D. R. wore on three successive, precedent-breaking presidential campaigns. Occasion for the auction was the widely attended annual Screen Actors Guild party, often called "The Gambol of the Stars," and although the President was unable to attend in person, he dominated the event with his donation of the much-coveted fedora. One stipulation made by the President was that the hat never be worn. Now the hat, shared jointly by Edward G. Robinson and Melvyn Douglas, will spend six months each year in the Robinson den, six in the Douglas den, by mutual agreement.

HIGH BIDDERS faced a battery of cameras large enough to abash less screen-seasoned veterans. "Once, twice—and sold to the man from 'Big Town,'" is what the auctioneer was saying here. The picture shows:

- (1) George Murphy, who emceed the party . . .
- (2) Edward G. Robinson and . . .
- (3) Melvyn Douglas, who bid against each other at first, combined against other bidders later to take the hat . . .
- (4) Edward Arnold, . . .
- (5) Jean Hersholt and . . .
- (6) Ken Carpenter, the auctioneers . . .

Movie-Radio Guide
REPORTS ON:

Judy Garland's Private Love Story

Unspoiled by stardom, Judy deserves a perfect romance!

To News Desk:

ON THE Judy Garland-Dave Rose romance, mark this down as the real thing. On getting the assignment for the facts, I hiked over to projection-room number five at M-G-M and slipped into a seat beside Judy, who was watching "The Great Ziegfeld." The picture was made four years ago, but Judy wanted to see it again before doing her final scenes in "The Ziegfeld Girl," just to make sure she'd caught the spirit of it.

After the lights came on we looked around on the floor for Judy's shoes (she always kicks them off while she's watching a movie) and then went hunting for Dave Rose. We caught up with him after his five-o'clock broadcast and the three of us then drove out to Judy's place in Benedict Canyon for a spot of fried chicken.

I've known Dave and Judy for quite a long time, and there's nothing to say beyond the fact that this is IT.

The Proof:

While Judy and her mother cluttered up the kitchen preparing the chicken, Dave told me about the background music he's writing for a poem Judy has written called "A Lover's Goodbye to a Departing Soldier." Just try to talk to Dave or Judy. He talks about what Judy is doing. Judy talks about what Dave is doing.

I read the poem and it's good, but they asked us not to publish it. A few weeks back Judy appeared in an original story of her own (scripted by True Boardman) on the "Silver Theater" broadcast. I understand Dave did the background music for this, too.

After dinner Dave and Judy more or less deserted me. Dave had some work (he has four shows on the air now) and Judy had a song she was tinkering with. Every now and then Dave would look over Judy's shoulder to see how she was getting along. She'd say, "Dave, don't look! I know it's bad!" He'd reply, "No it isn't, honey, but here's a suggestion—"

Knowing this was turning into a story about their romance, a man might have suspected them of putting on an act, except that this is how they are all the time. These two youngsters are hard-working, sincere, deeply concerned with each other's careers. As is the case in most true loves, there's little billing and cooing, none of the obvious. That's why many people think it isn't a permanent thing.

The Story:

Dave drove me home around midnight. We talked a little about Judy, the war, things in general. Neither Dave nor Judy will talk about their romance or allow quotes. That's why this isn't a straight news report. You have to know the background to understand there isn't a finer pair of young people in film-dom, and to understand definitely this is no night-club or newspaper-column love.

Yes, I got the story. There won't be any elopement. There will be a marriage. But don't look for those wedding bells for a while.—C. S.

Photographs by Jack Atlin and Bruce Ballby

SEAT YOURSELF AT THIS TABLE OPPOSITE

"I promised myself once that I'd never say 'yes' to any man the first time he proposed to me. Besides, a girl's got a right to be prepared for as important a thing as a proposal. Everything should be right... flowers...music... and a balcony."

IMAGINE FOR THE MOMENT you are a close friend of Judy and Dave. You're at the Coconut Grove. You had trouble with your tie or your hairdress, just as Dave and Judy did. Dave's been in Palm Springs, and Judy is impressed by his coat of tan. They might be your neighbors

DAVE IS continually dropping witticisms, at the same time maintaining a deadpan face. This wows Judy—and would wow you, too, except that his humor is the quick, born-of-the-minute sort that doesn't lend itself readily to print. They're a quiet—but happy and gay—twosome

THIS IS WHAT LIFE IS LIKE

YOU HEARD Judy say this over the air. It applies to her private life, too. No elopement for Judy. When she marries, it will be a private wedding with all the trimmings. Not a big affair, but the sort of thing she has always wanted—and Judy doesn't change

THE PUBLIC has often speculated on the possibility of a romance some day between Judy and Mickey Rooney. It is almost a dead certainty now that such will never be the case. They are fast friends, however, and Judy appears next on the screen in "Babes on Broadway," with Mickey. Pictures in which they co-star are invariably box-office hits

ON THE VERGE of the marriageable age, Judy and Dave meet Bonita Granville and Jackie Cooper on the dance floor. It doesn't take a crystal to predict that, two years hence, this quartet could be young married folks and good neighbors

JUDY GARLAND AND DAVE ROSE

WATCH JUDY and you'll learn that a girl should be as attentive as her escort. Here Judy lights a cigarette for Dave. Judy is also a good listener, is willing to give the other fellow a chance. When you're out with Dave and Judy, prepare to come early and leave early. They aren't night owls. They don't go to night-clubs frequently—although the great quantity of pictures printed would make you think differently. Fact is, they're favorites with Hollywood's army of cameramen, who make the most of their few appearances. Both take their work seriously

FOR JUDY IN HOLLYWOOD

FRIENDS OF LONG STANDING, Bonita Granville, Judy and Jackie Cooper grew up together in Filmtown. Bonita pretends indignation at Judy stealing boy friend Jackie

THERE IS NOTHING puppyish about the regard Judy and Dave hold for each other. Judy's rapt look is not for Dave's love-making. They are discussing music

THE EARLY JUDY would always entertain. Not so today. She feels her artistry isn't equal to Dave's, refuses to show off. Judy has indeed grown up!

Recommended: "That Hamilton Woman"

YOU'LL see one of your favorite pairs of off-screen lovers together in Alexander Korda's sweeping historical romance, "That Hamilton Woman!" Laurence Olivier's verve and Vivien Leigh's allure are there, of course, but the story of the overwhelming love of England's mighty Lord Nelson and brilliant, beautiful Lady Hamilton sweeps them dramatically together and apart over a period of twenty years. As a matter of fact, it isn't Olivier's handsome face you'll see at all. His features are made over to resemble the features of the hero of Trafalgar—with a longer nose-bridge, a wider mouth and a lower hairline. Later in the picture, as a consequence of his strenuous campaigns against the Napoleonic dictator, he appears with facial scars and minus an arm and one eye (done with a false eyelid). Nonetheless gripping is this story of a love that transcended physical glamour, conventions and selfish desires. Although the chief setting is in Naples, the background atmosphere is primarily British, authentically done in casting as well as settings. Stars Vivien Leigh and Laurence Olivier are, of course, British-born, as are featured players Gladys Cooper, Alan Mowbray and Henry Wilcoxon and several others of the supporting cast. Sara Allgood, seen as Lady Hamilton's mother, has done much work on the London stage, and she wears in the picture an elegant necklace and bracelet given her by England's great actress, Ellen Terry.

3. THROUGH YEARS OF WAR the bond between Captain, Admiral, Lord Nelson (Laurence Olivier) and Lady Hamilton grows stronger—even after this nemesis of Napoleon becomes worn and scarred, with eye and arm sacrificed

4. OFFICIAL CENSURE of Nelson fails to change their love. Sir William dies, Nelson resigns his command, settles with Emma in the country. But when duty calls the hero to Trafalgar, he meets death heroically, Emma carries on

Recommended: "Meet John Doe"

DIRECTING genius Frank Capra and writer Robert Riskin spent eight months at Warner Bros. Studios preparing the script for "Meet John Doe." The former labored twelve weeks directing the star-studded cast. Both men staked much of their own private capital on the production of the picture. Fifty-seven sets were built. One hundred thirty-seven speaking parts were cast. Over four thousand extras were used in one scene for ten days. Capra paid $4,000 for an opinion of a scene. He hired three hundred fifty extras to secure their reactions to two versions of a speech by Gary Cooper. Arthur Turely, world-famous harmonica player, instructed Mr. Cooper in the use of the instrument. A $35,000 imitation of a radio studio was built. It took two hundred plumbers to keep rain falling steadily for eight nights at a ball park for some scenes. Copies of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee" had to be printed for the four thousand extras when it was discovered less than twenty percent knew the words. Players in cold scenes wore electrically heated gloves; but Barbara Stanwyck was discovered almost unconscious on the frigid stage. Gary Cooper, Edward Arnold and James Gleason had to eat a seven-course dinner in the morning on four consecutive days during production. These are the things—these and many more—that went into the making of "Meet John Doe," story of a forgotten man who refuses to remain forgotten! A recommended picture.

The Story 1. ANN MITCHELL (Barbara Stanwyck), fired from a newspaper, signs her last column of protest against political evils, "John Doe." To impersonate her mythical Mr. Doe she finds Gary Cooper, a hobo and has-been baseball player

2. PUBLISHER D. B. Norton (Edward Arnold) hires Ann back. He launches a campaign to make a hero of John Doe, seeing in the stunt a chance to further his own corrupt political designs. John Doe flees from the resulting publicity avalanche, takes to the open road again

3. DISCOVERING that he is looked upon as a champion of the little man, John Doe confronts the John Doe clubs. Attempting to expose the publisher's selfish scheme, he is forestalled, and the people are convinced John Doe is a fake

4. JOHN DOE is about to leap from the roof of the City Hall as a martyr protest. Ann stops him, faints in his arms. He carries her past the publisher and his henchman, determined to carry on in earnest the fight of the little man

CAROLE LANDIS

Spotlight On: Carole Landis Hollywood's Most-Dated Starlet

EVERY year in Filmtown some fascinating girl steps out to reap more publicity than all of her feminine co-workers combined. Ann Sheridan did it with "oomph" in 1939; Lana Turner's romances turned the trick in 1940. This year has its own limelight girl—Carole Landis, here-with dubbed Hollywood's "most-dated" starlet. She has dated more handsome movietown men and Hollywood ex-husbands than any other girl. But to attempt to classify her as a party girl is to make a mistake. Carole works hard and she's clever. She realizes that hard work alone won't make a pretty girl a public favorite. So suspicion lingers that she is not averse to publicity about her many dates. It is logical that at this stage of her career Carole would not want to get too serious about any one man.

The Climb:

The cream of Carole's today is the skimmed milk of all her yesterdays. True, she was recently signed by 20th Century-Fox and given a hit part in Zanuck's Technicolor "Miami," now coming up, in addition to regular assignments at Hal Roach Studios. But she was born just Frances Lillian Mary Ridste, in Fairchild, Wis., on New Year's Day, 1919. Her family moved to San Bernardino, and—a fifteen-year-old schoolgirl there—she eloped. The marriage was annulled three months later; later still the couple remarried, and even later were divorced. Last year in Hollywood she married Willis Hunt, Jr., now has her first decree. Carole began her career from scratch. When she decided she wanted to be a singer she didn't buy a ticket to Hollywood. She went to San Francisco, worked in a nightclub a year, learned the facts about personality, managing money. Then she was ready for Hollywood. First interview at Warners landed her in the chorus of "Varsity Show." Many girls have gotten that far. It was only the beginning for Carole.

Carole's Credo:

Carole is where she is today because she understood that beauty wasn't enough to put her there. A page from her "How to Succeed" note-book might read: Clothes: Make the most of them and see that they make the most of you. People: Meet the important ones and don't keep it a secret. Make everybody you meet a friend. Work: Don't be afraid of it. Health: Never let a night's play leave you with a sleep hangover for the next day's work. Nerve: Never lose it! Around the yard of Carole's Brentwood house romp a couple of mutts—a spaniel named "Sensible," a husky called "Foolish." They weren't named by accident. Under pressure Carole admits her belief that a little of each is a good idea for a girl who wants to succeed in Horrible Hollywood.

HER MARRIAGE to Willis Hunt, Jr., (dancing with her at Ciro's) didn't last quite a year. Carole doesn't bar her own ex-husband from the ranks of ex-hubby dates

Ann Sheridan Tells Why Working Is Fun

ANN SHERIDAN, pursued on her return to the Warner Bros. lot by a Movie-Radio Guide reporter, said: "It's good to be back at work because I like it and because picture-making is the most interesting business in the world. I enjoyed my vacation, too, but no Texas girl likes to sleep late every morning. 'Navy Blues' is to be my first picture and it's a musical. I like that. I've been practising 'Reveille' in my dressing-room ever since I returned!"

GENERAL

"Wind" About to Reap

With Paramount's assignment last week of Ray Milland to the leading male part of the lawyer in its epic, "Reap the Wild Wind," the Thelma Strobel novel drew several steps closer to the cameras, which are scheduled to begin rolling in June. Wanted, still, is the heroine, a spitfire beauty, for whose characterization Paulette Goddard and Betty Field are still in the running, but railbirds insist talented young Laraine Day will be borrowed from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Balance of cast set: John Wayne, as the sea captain; Raymond Massey, head of the gang of shipwreckers, and Walter Hampden, Lynne Overman and Robert Preston in principal roles. Note: Milland's selection resulted from a poll of exhibitors who liked him in "Arise My Love" and "The Doctor Takes a Wife."

Goldwyn Joins Mickey Mouse

Conferences of the fortnight between producer Sam Goldwyn and Mickey Mouse's father, Walt Disney, have resulted in the announcement that the two will work together to film "The Life and Stories of Hans Christian Andersen," famous fairy-story teller. Plans call for a combination of flesh and cartoon actors, with Goldwyn producing the work of the former and Disney the latter.

WHAT A SCOOP! Last week in fashionable Brentwood, beyond Beverly Hills, Greta Garbo went for a walk. It's been many months since she faced a camera, didn't expect to face one this day. Habitually at four each afternoon, Garbo saunters out through the gate which punctuates the high hedge surrounding her home, strolls leisurely along. Equipped with a powerful lens, Movie-Radio Guide's cameraman Bruce Bailey perched comfortably out of sight in a clump of bushes, waited for her. Half hidden under a broad-brimmed Panama, she walked briskly, mannishly, never heard the click of the camera and won't know what happened until she receives her copy of Movie-Radio Guide on the house's marquee—until the manager discovered at first running that Lupita's scenes had been eliminated from the film, and he had a lot of mad Tovar fans on his hands. They were distinctly not good neighbors!

Shirley Temple With "Big Girls"

Shirley Temple is growing up, disdains such interior-decorating effects as bunnies and Easter eggs in her dressing-room. At Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, where Miss Temple is at work on "Babes on Broadway," she issued a polite request that her room not be decorated like a "little girl's" suite—and that she wants to be right in the same building with big glamour girls Myrna Loy, Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford and Garbo. New assignment: Upon completion of "Babes on Broadway" Shirley will co-star with Wallace Beery in "Lazy Bones," a waterfront tale of a motherless youngster reminiscent of "The Champ," which Beery made with Jackie Coogan.

Jimmy Stewart's 325 hours of solo flying time stood him in good stead when he reported to Fort MacArthur to train a year with Uncle Sam's Army, resulted in his transfer to Moffett Field, Calif., for training with the U. Part of the fun will be reading the letters from and writing to Metro actress Ruth Hussey, whom he discovered on the eve of his departure—after he had turned his private plane over to Olivia de Havilland for safekeeping!

Celebrities who joined the Army last week included agent and man-about-Hollywood Vic Orsatti and wealthy Los Angeles businessman Charles Isaacs, suitor for the hand of starlet Ann Rutherford, to whom he loaned his yacht for the forthcoming year. Draft call expecters arranging their personal affairs were Tony Martin, Wayne Morris, lawyer Greg Bautzer and Jerry Hopper, hubby of Marsha Hunt.

Letter From the Oliviers

To producer David Selznick, Vivien "Scarlett" Leigh, in England, wrote a letter which arrived in Hollywood last week. In it she told how she had joined the British ambulance corps, and afterward how happy she was that her husband, Laurence Olivier, had been accepted by the Royal Air Force.

To Louella Parsons came a letter from Ben Lyon and Bebe Daniels in London reporting how they had introduced the reading of cables from Hollywood celebrities on their BBC short-wave broadcasts (heard in this country) and how they plan to auction off the actual cables to swell the Spilfire fund.

HOSPITALIZED

Jeffrey Lynn Cuts Cheek

Six stitches were required in the cheek and lips of Jeffrey Lynn, Warner Bros. leading man, when a scene in "Underground" called for him, one arm strapped to his side, to run to an automobile and leap in. Handicapped by his one-armed role, Lynn slipped, fell, sideswiped the car's door with his face.

Under observation at St. Vincent's Hospital last week was Mary Pickford, taking treatment for a kidney ailment. Her general condition was reported as very good by her physician, Dr. Verne Hunt.

Irene Dunne finished her business in "Unfinished Business" with a slightly sprained ankle resulting from a rough train ride in a "train interior" on the set of the Universal picture. Said Miss Dunne, "I'll take a plane next time!"

LIFE STATISTICS

Herbert Marshalls Baby-Shopping

Herbert Marshall and his wife, the former Lee Russell, confided to friends last week that they are contacting the famous Cradle, in Evanston, Ill., with regard to the adoption of a boy baby of English blood.

Lois Andrews Jessel wired Columbia Pictures refusal of a picture bid because she's going to have a baby. Husband George Jessel gave his bride a cradle as a gag seventeenth birthday gift.

Producer-writer Preston Sturges, limelighted by his sprightly Paramount pictures, "Down Went McGinty" and "The Lady Eve," admitted that his wife is expecting the big bird late this summer.

Durbin Fans Favor Marriage

Eased last week were the uneasy heads of Universal, whose top box-office star, Deanna Durbin, was busily completing her trousseau for her wedding on Friday, April 18, to Vaughn Paul. The executives had worried over what the ending of Deanna's single-blessedness would do to her fan appeal. Out to her devoted fans went a questionnaire, back came the answers. Result: More than ninety percent stamped their approval.

Off to Las Vegas last fortnight eloped Mary Frazier and Allan Miller, brother of Mrs. Zeppo Marx.

Newshawks last week wondered if Mary Lou Dix and 20th Century-Fox music director Al Newman are already man and wife. Tip to the news noses: Check the records at Tijuana, Mexico.

Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea were wed for the eighth time in pictures last week at Paramount, but there, in the nuptial scene of "The Great Man's Lady," they spoke the vows in their most extraordinary manner. The chapel: An open prairie in a driving rainstorm accompanied by thunder and lightning.

Pat Stillman to Reno

To Reno last week went Pat Stillman, oft a twosome of late with Cesar Romero. But Romero denies a romantic interest in Miss Stillman, explains he is a close friend of her estranged husband, too.

Today in HOLLYWOOD

Maria Montez, Universal contractee and ardent night-clubber, told newsmen last week that she expects to receive her final divorce in May from William McPeters, Santo Domingo bank official to whom she was wed five years ago.

Writer-producer Roland Leigh and Teddy de Bernard, Garbo chum, have separated legally.

Ballet dancer and screen actress Zorina and her ballet-directing husband, George Balanchine, are preparing to sign divorce papers.

Engaged

While John Emery and Tamara Geva were insisting last week that their meetings are merely a matter of friendship, intimates were offering betting odds that they'd wed when his divorce from Tallulah Bankhead becomes final.

In "Unfinished Business" Irene Dunne's younger sister, played by Kathryn Adams, gets married. Hugh Beaumont is cast as her bridegroom. The payoff: Miss Adams and Beaumont are really engaged, expect to wed in May!

Martha O'Driscoll is sporting on her ring finger a big ruby placed there by Willis Hunt, Jr., ex-hubby of Carole Landis, but the blond star has also been going with Richard Denning.

Hollywood Merry-Go-Round

Twosomes of the fortnight: Gene Tierney with Burgess Meredith at the Cafe Lamaze . . . Franchot Tone and New York dancer-model Eleanor Francis at the Rhumboogie . . . Olivia de Havilland and Jock Whitney at the Beverly Tropics . . . Cesar Romero with Frances Robinson at the Mocambo . . . Ken Murray and Kay ("Tillie the Toiler") Harris at the Pirates' Den . . . Arline Judge flying to Albuquerque to escort boy friend Huntington Hartford III to Hollywood . . . Mary Parker with uniformed Lieut. Walter Brooks at the Beverly Tropics . . . Pat Dane with a new amethyst ring and Cedric Gibbons . . . Nan Wynn with Jack Warner, Jr., at the Wilshire Bowl . . . John Carroll with Irene Coleman . . . Eddie Norris with Earl Carroll pretty Dorothy Shuemer . . . Tom Brown and Jane Lawless of Atlanta . . . Edmund Lowe and Sally Allen.

Puppylove division: Jane Withers

being squired to Palm Springs' Big Top Ball by Freddie Bartholomew, and being cut in on by Buddy Pepper . . . Marcia Mae Jones dining at the House of Murphy with Charles Smith, the new Dizzy of Paramount's Henry Aldrich series.

Hollywood Harpoon

Said John Barrymore, who says much: "There's nothing wrong with Hollywood that a good tidal wave wouldn't cure."

CONTRACTS

Mature in Seven-Year Pact

Into headlines last week broke news of Victor Mature's new seven-year contract with Hal Roach, reporting both $1,750 and $750 as the salary to be paid. The lowdown: Bonuses to be paid the actor for outside play dates, films and appearances very likely will bring the basic $750 pay to the $1,750 bracket—or higher. Mature's success in the Gertrude Lawrence play, "Lady in the Dark," motivated the deal.

Darryl Francis Zanuck returned last week from skiing at Sun Valley to ink and begin a new six-year pact with 20th Century-Fox as the lot's vice president in charge of production. Immediately Zanuck set wheels in motion to place "A Yank in the R. A. F." before the cameras.

Claire Dodd, who quit pictures several years ago to become a mother, returned to Universal last week to sign a seven-year contract in reward for her work in "The Black Cat." First assignment to the blond actress under the deal will be as leading lady of Abbott and Costello in "In the Navy." Helen Gilbert, whose career languished after parts in "The Secret of Dr. Kildare" and "Florian" at Metro, has been contracted by Paramount, which last week also picked up the options of Stirling Hayden, Frances Gifford and Albert Dekker.

Joseph Cotten, Mercury Theater player first seen in Welles' "Citizen Kane," has been given a two-picture deal by RKO-Radio Studios, set to play with Merle Oberon in "Illusions"—and all before the movie-goers have seen him. Dennis O'Keefe was also given a term contract by RKO, as was the stage's Philip Reed, now a heavy in Paramount's "Aloma of the South Seas."

Week-End at Ciro's

A WEEK-END isn't stretching it too much. Many stars come to Ciro's on Saturday night, repeat on Sunday. This goes on indefinitely. Movie-Radio Guide presents a few odd facts about this situation. It is proper to dress on Saturdays, go informally on Sundays. (1) Sunday night at a table with Lana Turner, Tony Martin. On opposite page you can see how Lana looked on Saturday. (2) Sonja Henie and Dan Topping wait outside for their car. (3) Stars don't go places with their secretaries. But Patill McCarty is Dorothy Lamour's ex-secretary, so she joins Doty and Greg Bautzer now. (4) Bob Taylor, Barbara Stanwyck look very happy on Saturday night, prove they're not thinking of divorce. (5) Slimmer by twenty-five pounds, Sonja Henie, with socialite-sportsman husband, Dan Topping, is very cute.

P. S.: Hollywood Is Whispering

ABOUT Cary Grant and Barbara Hutton. and about Cary Grant's deal to play the spiteful maniac in Warner Bros.' filming of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" for $125,000, of which $124,999 is to go for British war relief and but ONE DOLLAR to Grant to make the contract legal. "Trying to keep his income tax down," say some whisperers. Wrong they are. Grant would not need to make the picture at all if that were the case. And Grant was the heaviest star contributor in 1940 to the American Red Cross and British war relief. Meanwhile, Cary and Barbara hold trysts.

CENTER of the gossip from Warner Bros. studio this week is Marlene Dietrich's behavior on the "Man Power" set. Famed for being a "troublesome" star, Marlene has done a direct about face, according to rumors from sound-stage No. 4. Movie-Radio Guide's studio lot reporter checked up, discovered this: Everybody from wardrobe girls to director works frantically making things right for Marlene. Everything is right. Marlene still has the last word on everything from clothes to dialog, but she's taking advice these days. Evidence: See review of picture, page 12.

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE CRITICS' REPORT

MOVIE VIEWS

by Carl A. Schroeder

IN HOLLYWOOD an honest movie critic is a man without a friend. If he likes every picture he is a weak-minded Babbitt. If he dislikes them all he is shunned like the plague. There is no middle road. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's critics like their job of reviewing pictures. They are movie fans, but they are critics and reserve the right to say what they think. Frequently their readers, and producers as well, will disagree on the critical judgment of a picture. When this happens, remember this old toast: "Here's to you and here's to me. If perchance we disagree, here's to me!"

Having that off our chest we leap to our first item with a blunt ax: Wallace Beery is a popular star. We looked forward with relish to a preview of "The Bad Man." We saw the preview. We don't trust ourselves to say what we think in a long review. Let's just leave it up to the one hundred thousand western fan youngsters who will see the picture—and are those kids brutal!

This week we hurried to Paramount to see how things were going under the new studio boss, Buddy De Sylva. Things were going pretty good. So good, in fact, that before 1941 is out any picture with the De Sylva name on it may easily be assumed to be a hit. He is jovial, open-minded and admits his motto is "To the bad place with art, give me entertainment!"

P. S. A tip for the whole family: See Loretta Young and Edward Arnold in that wacky burlesque of the old West, "The Lady From Cheyenne" . . . A special treat for adults is "That Uncertain Feeling" . . . Flash! Bette Davis in "The Great Lie" is great!

STAR of the WEEK Bruce Cabot

HOLLYWOOD can feel thoroughly ashamed of itself for not having given Cabot better breaks. Proof: His acting in Universal's "The Flame of New Orleans"

BEST LOVE-SCENE this week is that between Bruce Cabot and Marlene Dietrich in "The Flame of New Orleans." As the original script describes it: "And now his mouth is on hers . . . her eyes wide open in frightened resignation. They are in their embrace. Her arms are limp at her sides as he kisses her violently. The camera trucks back through the port-hole to the exterior of the cabin and pans up to the night sky sprinkled with stars." CUT!

COMING ATTRACTIONS

STRAIGHT FROM THE HEART is every scene in "Blossoms in the Dust," a forthcoming M-G-M film based on the life of Edna Gladney, superintendent of the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society at Fort Worth. Above is Greer Garson, famed for her role in "Mr. Chips," with one of the babies in the film

Reviews

"The Devil and Miss Jones"

Cast: Jean Arthur, Robert Cummings, Charles Coburn, Edmund Gwenn, Spring Byington, Montagu Love, Regis Toomey, et al. An RKO-Radio picture, produced by Frank Ross; directed by Sam Wood. Story by Norman Krasna.

THE name is Sam Wood, folks. That may not mean anything to you. It will after you see "The Devil and Miss Jones." Mr. Wood is the director, and what a director! Remember that after you see this picture, see all of his films—Sam Wood can't miss!

In this case the ingredients for a smash hit in which almost all the glory must go to the director are: (1) A brisk story about a department store tycoon who tries to smash a strike by working in disguise at his own store. (2) A supporting cast of minor players that is solid down to the smallest character. (3) Love interest for old folk as well as young.

A fine thing about "The Devil and Miss Jones" is that Jean Arthur isn't in every foot of the opus giving out with that startled look that is so cute when it isn't overdone. As the picture unfolds you get the idea that the director let Miss Arthur do her job, no less, no more, just because she was the star. There's something else, too. This critic's least enthusiasm among actors always has been Robert Cummings, but this time the lad comes through with a rousing performance.

There's a love scene on the sands of Coney Island that will make you squeeze the hand of your best girl next to you. There's love between the rich old man and the clerk. There's more, but to tell it wouldn't be fair.

VERDICT: Every Hollywood producer should see this picture to learn how to make better pictures. Young couples should see it, then run like mad for the nearest preacher. You guessed it, we are crazy about this picture. —C. S.

"The Flame of New Orleans"

Cast: Marlene Dietrich, Bruce Cabot, Roland Young, Mischa Auer, Laura Hope Crews, Theresa Harris, Andy Devine, et al. A Universal picture, produced by Joe Pasternak; directed by Rene Clair. Screen play by Norman Krasna.

HOLLYWOOD ought to know this: The idea that Marlene Dietrich is so fascinating per se that twenty million Americans ask for nothing more than to pay for a chance to bask in her long, slow look is silly. The legend of Dietrich and the legs is a dead pigeon. Proof of that comes in "The Flame of New Orleans." There are two Dietrichs in this picture and both of them better than the one Americans have grown tired of seeing. Dietrich number one is the adventuress pretending to be a fine lady. Dietrich, number two is the adventuress who is pretending to be a fine lady who is pretending to be an adventuress. If this confuses you, see the picture and see how it confuses Roland Young. He is the rich New Orleans blade who wants to wed Marlene but keeps stumbling over her bad reputation.

Into this situation comes Bruce Cabot, a robust sailor who falls heavily for Marlene number one and number two. He woos her while the rich suitor muddles himself in the question of whether or not she is "good enough." The picture opens with the commentator promising to let the audience in on the secret behind a wedding dress found floating on the Mississippi. He does, and for one, this critic's interest never lagged.

VERDICT: Once a group of exhibitors called Dietrich "poison." If this is poison, pass us a glass of arsenic and a basketful of Dietrich pictures like this. Rene Clair, the Frenchman who directed "The Ghost Goes West," is largely responsible, with the aid of Joe Pasternak, for this picture. Congratulations, boys! —C. S.

NEXT WEEK—Time Changes!

IT'S time again to change time. That means it's time again for radio listeners to shift not only the hands of their clocks but also their listening habits. Twice a year it happens—once in the spring to save daylight, once in the fall to give daylight back to the seasons. Twice each year radio executives go almost crazy juggling programs in wholesale lots. Just as many times listeners approach the limits of poise and patience trying to get their listening schedules all straightened out. And that many times each year the editors of Movie-Radio Guide strain all their resources trying to keep the listeners abreast of time-and-program changes. Even if we didn't feel that Movie-Radio Guide is always your radio set's first assistant, we think we'd be justified in our belief that our publication is absolutely indispensable at least these two times each year. Next week's issue is IT—one of the indispensable issues. Hundreds of programs will play tag with Daylight Saving Time on your dial. Catch them with next week's MUST-ISSUE of Movie-Radio Guide.

THE OPERA "MIGNON," with Gladys Swarthout, Armand Tokatyan and Nicola Moscona in the lead roles, will be presented by the St. Louis Grand Opera company from Municipal Auditorium in St. Louis this Monday. (See also under Thursday.) CBS.

ALONG THE AIRALOTOS

WEEK OF APRIL 19-25

RADIO VIEWS

by Martin Lewis

FROM Monday until Friday of every week, daytime listeners to network stations are deluged with a series of programs to which the radio trade refers as "soap-box operas." They are fifteen-minute sketches tending to portray the daily affairs in the average home. But if you were to listen to them regularly you would wonder if they are truly representative of our way of life.

What is the basic theme of most of these serials? The answer is trouble. For some reason which we have not yet been able to discover, the characters in these serials seem to be beset with a series of plagues that would put those incurred by the children of Israel to shame. For instance, in several of these daytime serials the chief character has been afflicted with sudden blindness or loss of memory, not to mention the divorce entanglements in others which happen too often to make good listening. Naturally that sort of thing brings about plenty of complications. But are those complications the sort which occur in the average home? We think not. If they are, then the typical American family is certainly living in one continual round of unhappiness.

We need some cheer and a few chuckles in place of the morbidity which dominates the story plot of these serials, something which has a lighter side; something which more closely approximates what is actually the case with Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public. A good example of the kind of program which we have in mind is the popular "One Man's Family." Another is the "Aldrich Family." One never tires of these sketches, listeners can always be assured of some good laughs and the performances are delightful to the ears.

PLEASE bear in mind this is not just one man's opinion. It is the opinion of thousands of reader-listeners who have written MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE over a period of time, asking why those responsible for serials place so much emphasis on the darker side of life.

We Americans have plenty to worry us these days, what with wars and rumors of wars on every side. We don't need to be forced to listen to an unending parade of domestic tragedies which have been exaggerated beyond all reason. We need something which will give us more faith in our homes, in our way of living. We need to be uplifted, not cast down.

"Give us lighter sketches, Mr. Radio Producer, and we will show you that you can sell your product just as easily as you do with the type which is filled to the overflowing with pure, unadulterated tragedy."

That, Mr. Radio Producer, is the "Voice of the Listener."

EXCLUSIVE

Marge's "Ex" Sues

NEW YORK.—Four-year-old Richard Kretsinger, known to MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE readers as "Rikky," son of the late Donna Damerel, who was the original Marge of "Myrt and Marge," is the center of a lawsuit involving his grandmother, Myrtle Vail Lambert, Myrt of the program, and his father, William Jean Kretsinger. "Rikky's" father, who was divorced from Marge in 1939, is now in Alaska and is

—Maurice Seymour

Jimmy McClain, twenty-nine-year-old announcer and producer, is the new "Dr. I. Q." (NBC, Mon.)

suing for the custody of the child. Grandmother Myrt has already moved to adopt "Rikky."

Dinah Loses—and Wins!

NEW YORK.—During the hearings over vocalist Dinah Shore's unsuccessful attempt to get release from the Eddie Cantor program for a bigger-paying job with the Chase and Sanborn show, it was disclosed that the sultry singer had been paying twenty percent of her salary in commissions. The radio artists' union, learning this, instructed Cantor to henceforth pay her ninety percent of her salary and the remaining ten percent to her two agencies. In addition, the agencies were ordered to pay back all commissions that Dinah had paid in excess of ten percent.

Hedda Hops

HOLLYWOOD.—Hedda Hopper, Hollywood air and print gossip who goes where she wants to go, armed herself March 29 with a bale of permits, visas and credentials to crash the military aircraft reservation at San Diego and watch the filming of "Dive Bomber," starring Errol Flynn. After passing the challenges of a half dozen military police, Hedda heard several loud-talking sailors at the location set commenting on British-accented Flynn and Hungarian-dialect director Mike Curtiz, "Jeepers creepers, they're all furriners! How did they get in here?" The answer: Flynn and Curtiz, being aliens, were not permitted to pass deadlines established about certain restricted areas!

The same Hopper came hopping back from Washington April 4 aglow from her experience of lunching with Eleanor Roosevelt. Hedda told Mrs. F. D. R. that the acting profession certainly missed a swell actor when her hubby took up politics, and the First Lady regaled the assembled National Women's Press Club with a laughable account of her impressions about the way Mr. R. runs the country!

DEATHS

The Lone Ranger

FARMINGTON, MICH. — The Lone Ranger is dead. Not the heroic character of nation-wide fame. Rather the man who played the role, and whose identity was zealously guarded for years by the producers of the show. Earle Graser, thirty-two-year-old actor, was killed April 8 when his car struck the rear of a parked truck-trailer as he was driving to his new home in Farmington, Mich., where he lived with his wife and one-year-old daughter. It is believed Graser may have dropped off to sleep at the wheel

Earle Graser, portrayer of the Lone Ranger, died in an automobile accident on April 8 from fatigue. Brace Beemer, who originally played the part some years ago and who has also been narrator of the stories, returns to Silver's saddle. Ironical note: Graser's death came a short while before "The Lone Ranger" was to go on a large MBS network with a new sponsor.

Henry Burr

CHICAGO.—Henry Burr, the Bing Crosby of an earlier day, died here April 6 after several weeks' illness. The fifty-nine-year-old "Dean of Ballad Singers" has for the past several years been a regular soloist on the NBC "National Barn Dance." He was a musical idol back in the graphophone era, when he worked with Thomas A. Edison. More than ten millions of his recordings were sold over a period of years, including three millions of "Good Night, Little Girl, Good Night." He was born Harry H. McClaskey in New Brunswick, Canada.

THE WAR

Benny's Fiddle Sold for Greeks

CHICAGO.—Jack Benny, whose radio violin-playing is confined chiefly to sour "Love in Bloom" solos and threats of playing "The Bee," donated a fiddle for auction at a recent Greek War Relief show here, and it was bought for thirty-five dollars. Besides the Benny fiddle, one of Lionel Barrymore's original etchings sold for eleven dollars, and a big doll from Mae West for twelve dollars. Benny was emcee of the show.

Nazis Jail Commentator

NEW YORK.—Victim of the Nazis' wrath at the United States' taking over of German ships in American ports was John Paul Dickson, Mutual's Berlin observer. He was jailed, as were several other Americans in Berlin, when the Nazis learned of this government's action in stopping German crews from scuttling their ships here. Held incommunicado for almost nine hours, Dickson was given only one slice of bread to eat. In one of his regularly scheduled broadcasts Dickson later said about the arrest: "The whole thing made no sense."

Murrow Broadcasts in Print

NEW YORK.—It was inevitable that the transcripts of the foreign broadcasts by Edward R. Murrow, chief of the CBS European staff, be compiled in book form. Having directed CBS' European news affairs from London since May, 1937, Murrow has covered the most important developments in the present war. Edited by his co-worker in New York, Elmer Davis, This Is London contains the following in reference to the British people:

—Maurice Seymour

Henry Burr, "Dean of Ballad Singers," who was heard on "National Barn Dance," died April 6

"And of the future, I think most of them would say: 'We shall live hard, but we shall live.'"

"Dear John" Actor Called

HOLLYWOOD.—"Dear John" serial's Lynn Reed, portrayed by actor Howard Duff, passed his physical examination last week and was inducted into Uncle Sam's Army for a year. No replacement has been selected for his part in the Sunday drama series.

PROGRAMS

Bob White Bobs Up on MBS

NEW YORK.—Creator of "Deadline Dramas" on NBC, Robertson (Bob) White extends his radio activities to MBS May 6, when another of his brain-waves, "The People's Playhouse," debuts as a Coast-to-Coaster. White works with Irene Wicker on "Deadline Dramas," will emote with his wife Betty on "The People's Playhouse."

Wain "Hit Parade" Hold-Over

NEW YORK.—Latest contract renewal for Bea Wain on "Your Hit Parade" carries her through to July 26. It came coincident with the program's renewal on CBS. Her other half, Andre Baruch, handles the commercials.

Chicago Writer Returns

CHICAGO.—Wyllis Cooper has returned to the scene of his many fictitious crimes. The demon-writer of the early "Lights Out" horror plays is back in Chicago radio as one of the directors and writers of the "What's Your Idea?" program. During the past several years Cooper has been in Hol-

Invalid Gets Radio

CHICAGO.—If you heard "Your Dream Has Come True" March 30, you know that the program granted in generous measure the wish of Graham Matthews for a good radio. Matthews is the invalid of Shelbyville, Ky., whose beautiful letter to Happy Jack Turner was published in this section several weeks ago. Happy Jack was instrumental in getting this break for Matthews, one of the many stricken heroes who find life still good with the help of radio.

Substitute Shows

NEW YORK.—The last Kate Smith show before the annual summer vacation will be June 27. Replacement for the summer will be in the form of two half-hour shows, "Claudia" and "Regular Fellows."

MOVIES

Screen Raids Radio

HOLLYWOOD.—Universal Studios has a deal on with Ben Bernie and Walter Winchell to have them make another feud picture, while the same lot is planning to record on celluloid the J. Barrymore-Rudy Vallee radio goings-on. Meantime, Metro has reached into the Bob Hope cast to borrow his Six Hits and a Miss for Eleanor Powell's "Step This Way," and Martha Tilton, who clicked in "Irene," will repeat with Anna Neagle in "Sunny." Martha Raye has been signed to sing and clown in Warners' "Navy Blues," and negotiations are on to add Kate Smith to the same cast.

DeMille Aids Starlets

HOLLYWOOD.—Realizing that the twenty-hour rehearsal routine for his Monday "Radio Theater" and the actual appearance before its large theater-studio audience could provide valuable dramatic training and experience for film starlets, on April 7 Cecil B. DeMille inaugurated a new policy of spotting talented young cinema players in the casts of his radio dramas. First to be so assigned was Eleanor Stewart, ex-New York model now under contract to Paramount, who supported Warner Baxter and Joan Bennett in "Stand-In." Likewise given an unexpected break was Dorothy Knox, New York radactress Miss Bennett had heard and noted more than a year ago in the daytime serial, "The Life and Loves of Dr. Susan." Miss Knox was given the part of Cheri in the drama. Explaining the new policy, DeMille said: "Radio, where retakes are impossible and diction requirements more exacting, is often more demanding than movies."

Red Barber in Movies

NEW YORK.—Red Barber, MBS sports announcer known to many listeners especially through his picturesque world series reporting, has joined the RKO-Pathé staff as newsreel sports commentator. He will be narrator of all sports features except those on horse racing, which are handled by veteran Clem McCarthy.

GOING PLACES

Dagwood Enters Honolulu Race

HOLLYWOOD.—Arthur Lake, the Dagwood Bumstead of the "Blondie and Dagwood" films and broadcasts, is planning to enter his N-class yacht, Sea Hawk, in the 2,225-nautical-mile race to Honolulu starting July 4 this year. The Lake racer is reported to be the fastest sailing craft on the California shore.

Kate Smith Busy in West

HOLLYWOOD.—Kate Smith, with Ted Collins and entourage, are maintaining a merry-go-round schedule of activities while here. Last week's calendar included an airliner flight to San Diego April 3 to be luncheon guests of Admiral C. A. Blakely, Commandant of the 11th Naval District, and on Saturday and Sunday, April 5 and 6, Kate and party "rested" at Santa Catalina Island, where they took in every sight, went fishing, and buzzed about making amateur color movies of the William Wrigley estate and the isle's famous bird farm.

Heller a Double Commuter

CHICAGO.—Little Jackie Heller does some real cross-country commuting, because he sings at his brother's Yacht Club in Pittsburgh besides doing the solo job on "What's Your Idea?" here. He makes two round trips, a total of over two thousand miles, each week for the radio show's rehearsal and its broadcast.

HONORS

Robinson—for Safe-Driving Aid

HOLLYWOOD.—For the second consecutive year, Edward G. Robinson will be presented April 16 with a special award by the National Safety Council in token of his contributions through his Wednesday "Big Town" broadcasts to the cause of safe driving. "Big Town's" drama April 16 concerns reckless driving and its indictment.

"Quiz Kids"—for Swell Show

CHICAGO.—"Quiz Kids" has been chosen by the Federated Advertising Club of Chicago as "the outstanding network show produced in Chicago in 1940."

Benny—for Ten Years in Radio

HOLLYWOOD.—Jack Benny will be feted at a banquet to be attended by radio and screen celebrities in honor of his tenth anniversary in radio. Jock made his radio bow in May, 1931.

YOUNGER SET

Two Hollands in Radio

CHICAGO.—Joan Holland, kid sister of kid actor Dick Holland (Bud Barton), is making her radio debut as Doris Dorch in "Bachelor's Children." She's already practically a veteran of the movies, having made her first screen appearance at the age of five as Patricia in "The Great Ziegfeld."

Carol Ann Grows Up

HOLLYWOOD.—Carol Ann, daughter of Wallace Beery, always accompanies the actor to his "Radio Theater" broadcasts, but in past years the young lady sat on the stage. So, last fortnight, when Beery was co-starring with Mickey Rooney for Cecil B. DeMille, Beery requested and stagehands placed a chair for Carol Ann beside Beery's. She refused it. Said Carol, "I've grown up now. I think I can sit in the audience with the other people."

PERSONALS

FILM actress Muriel Angelus has ended for the present her radio singing-acting series, but it is talk that Margo may soon be launched as a radio singer . . . Jack Baker, "Breakfast Club" tenor, who once pointed for the opera, will do a classical concert for the first time in six years—this week in Fargo, N. Dak. . . . The Sons of the Pioneers, heard with Uncle Ezra, have contracted with Republic Studios for some new pictures. It will be a general homecoming when they return to Hollywood, for all are building homes in California . . . The new Louella Parsons show will end after thirteen weeks according to reports . . . Rubineff is reported close to crystallization of several radio prospects . . . Juliet Forbes, formerly of the New York theater and now in Chicago radio ("Wings of Destiny" occasionally), has announced her engagement to manufacturing executive Carl Hess . . . Hugh Studebaker (Dr. Bob of "Bachelor's Children") is thinking of adding a ranch in New Mexico to his rural property—consisting of an eighty-acre farm in Indiana.

WAR IN THE BALKANS BROUGHT TO AMERICAN LISTENERS BY SHORT WAVE

THE above caption is more nearly true than the average person realizes, since most of the first-hand news concerning the war in the Balkans is reaching us by short-wave radio. Even our newspapers, which long denied and minimized the value of radio as a major news service, are becoming more and more dependent upon short wave for fast and direct flashes from the trouble centers. On the front page of a leading Chicago newspaper I counted this morning no less than seven major news items credited to short-wave pick-ups from various radio stations, including Berlin, London, Budapest, Athens, Ankara, Berne and the anti-Nazi German Freedomsender.

Supplementing these newspaper items via short wave are our daily network pick-ups from Europe, a splendid service made available to American listeners at no small expense and often under greatest difficulty.

These services are fine and necessary, but you do not need to be satisfied with these alone, for you can tune in the war in the Balkans yourself if you are willing to spend a little time at the dials of your all-wave receiver.

First, let's take Berlin and Jugoslavia, chief protagonists in this latest phase of the struggle.

Berlin radio broadcasts the news in English to North America daily as follows (EST): 6:30, 8:30, 11:30 a.m. and 12:30, 1:30 p.m. over DJB (15.200); 3:30 p.m. over DJZ (11.801); 4:30 p.m. over DZD (10.54); 5:30 and 6:00 p.m. over DJD (11.77); 8:15 and 10:30 p.m. over DJD (11.77), DZD (10.54) and DXP (6.03); 12:00 mid. over DXP (6.03).

The state-owned short-wave station at Belgrade, Jugoslavia, has not thus far broadcast an English news bulletin in its service to North America (a fact often decry by this writer), but it is safe to hazard a prediction that such a service will be in existence before this print reaches you. The regular transmission to North America is made nightly from 9:00 to 10:00 p.m. EST over YUG (15.24) or YUE (11.735). Watch these frequencies and YUC-YUD (9.505) for network pick-ups from besieged Belgrade.

Now to Hungary. HAT4 (9.125), Budapest, broadcasts to North America nightly from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. EST. The Budapest radio is often quoted in press items. One should remember that all Budapest news must pass the Nazi censors.

Little Albania, scene of the bitter struggle between Greece and Italy and important strategically in the present phase of the Balkan war, has its own radio but it is seldom heard here; however, if you want to try for it, ZAA (6.084), Tirana, broadcasts daily from 12:20 to 2:45 p.m. EST.

Soviet Russia, an unpredictable element in the Balkan war but ever important because of its strength and geographical proximity, may now be heard in North America—for the first time in several months—with excellent signal strength daily from 10:00 to 10:50 a.m. EST over RV96 (15.18). Main feature of this broadcast is the English translation of the daily editorial from Moscow's Pravda, which may be heard at 10:20 or 10:30 a.m. EST. The nightly Soviet broadcast to North America, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. EST, is very poor at present because of unfavorable frequencies in use. RV96 (15.18) will soon go into service on this transmission and better reception can then be expected.

Regular readers of MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE will know that Radio Athens, SVM (9.935), Athens, Greece, only reliable democratic news source in the Balkans, is broadcasting to North America now regularly from 6:00 to 6:40 p.m. EST. The news in English is read at 6:05 p.m. EST. Radio Athens is very well heard in the United States.

Radio Ankara, TAP (9.465), Ankara, Turkey, is on the air daily from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and sometimes 4:00 p.m. EST with its regular program service. It does not broadcast a special transmission to North America as yet, but it is a frequent source of broadcast pick-ups by NBC and CBS. I firmly believe that Turkey will soon start regular broadcasts to North America. Watch here for first details.

Since short-wave radio facilities in Bulgaria and Roumania are almost nonexistent, all news from these countries must go by telephone or wireless to nearest international stations.

Balkan news heard over the London radio must naturally come second-handed, but since it is usually reliable and complete I will once again repeat that the main English news broadcasts from London for North America are made as follows: 5:45 p.m. over GSD (11.75), 7:00 p.m. over GSD (11.75) and GSC (9.58); 8:45, 10:45 (Radio Newsreel), and 11:30 p.m. EST over GSD (11.75), GSC (9.58) and GSL (6.11).

Hail, STAR of STARS WINNERS!

Radio's great honor list — here it is, with Bob Hope winning the Star of Stars Award — and best Comedian rating!

Bob Hope

RIGHT this way, ladies and gentlemen! You've been waiting for them—and here they are!

Here you see the number-one attraction, a double feature—the champ of champs, the white-hot Hope of American mirth—Bob Hope! You have crowned him king of comedians and also radio's ace of trumps, the Star of Stars. The new double winner took an early lead over Jack Benny to finally nose out the perennial monarch of merriment for this year's comedy honors. His bubbling humor and swift-paced Tuesday night program carried him to the heights, with one foot planted solidly on each of the two pedestals. And here's something to warm the cockles of your hearts: The champ not only kids people into being happier but he goes behind the scenes and helps alleviate want and misery in more material ways. Only a few months ago Hope was presented a special Academy Award for his whole-hearted efforts in behalf of unfortunate humanity.

There he is, ladies and gentlemen—ready to take all comers for next year's title! Nothing barred—not even ether-gags!

NEXT! Here you behold your two old friends, the magicians of melody—Kate Smith and Bing Crosby. They're here as winners again in the Best Woman and Man Singer of Popular Songs classifications, their vocal charms as potent as ever.

Another stalwart winner is Don McNeill, the democratic autocrat of the "Breakfast Club," and duly elected the best master of ceremonies on the air, same as last year. His listeners get up early in the morning—and what's more—those early risers again voted the "Breakfast Club" the best variety show and the favorite of all radio programs.

Here you may let your eyes fall tenderly (if feminine) or cordially (if masculine) upon the familiar figure of Don Ameche, the voice of verve, again elected the best radio actor. Your eyes will welcome the sight of the "First Lady of the Theater," Helen Hayes, now smiling at you as the First Lady of Radio Drama.

The sweet, subdued music you hear in the background is the same you have heard and applauded for these many years of this listeners' poll. Yes, Wayne King's orchestra is the choice once again as the best dance orchestra.

We approach a stage, and on its curtain is a name you will easily recognize—"Lux Radio Theater." Again this oft-honored hour-long dramatic program has been honored with the title "Best Dramatic Show."

You see many other old favorites among the lists of winners and near winners. But look! What about these young upstarts tumbling out in front of others? How about those "Quiz Kids," youthful wizards who served themselves with a top rating as "Best Children's Program" and two other high-placing positions this year?

There are other programs and personalities, old and new, challenging the leaders, in some cases spectacularly. That's the color and zest of radio. That's the reason for MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's annual Star of Stars Poll in which you, the listeners, speak. Your voices are fully recorded in the three columns opposite—a tabulation of the complete results of 1941's Star of Stars Poll!

Radio's NEWS PICTURE OF THE WEEK

Helen Mack is Radio's new "Marge"

NO SMALL task is that which actress Helen Mack (above) essays as she takes over the role of Marge in the popular CBS serial, "Myrt and Marge," left vacant by the recent untimely death of Donna Damerel Fick. Miss Mack is being asked to succeed a widely beloved actress who had played Myrt's daughter to admiring listeners since "Myrt and Marge" came to the air years ago. But what makes her position infinitely more delicate is the knowledge that Donna Damerel Fick, besides being Myrt's daughter on the air, was also her real-life daughter. To Myrt (Myrtle Vail), with whom she is seen at left, Helen Mack brings talent and sympathy. Selected for the role from more than two hundred actresses as the girl whom listeners would like to hear as Marge, she left Hollywood and a career in motion pictures to make her debut in daytime broadcasting. She lives quietly with her husband, Tom McAvity, radio chief of Lord and Thomas, a leading advertising agency. The new Marge has a demanding job but one with inspiring rewards if she can win listeners' hearts.

LADIES and gentlemen, here he is—Bob Hope! Just as those words bring you a half-hour of comedy over the air each Tuesday night, those words now bring you MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's special tour behind the scenes of a Bob Hope broadcast. But MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's introduction is different. Here he is, ladies and gentlemen, a double winner, radio's most popular comedian and the new Star of Stars as selected by MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE readers in the 1941 Poll—Bob Hope! (See page 36.) Mr. Hope began his current series in 1938—just six years after making his radio debut with Rudy Vallee. In three years he has built his program into one of radio's standout comedy shows. Cornerstone of the program has been his own comedy. Around that he has developed a unique group of laugh-getters. There is the one-time trombonist with funny mustachios in whom Hope saw real comic possibilities—Jerry Colonna. There are the two predatory women whom he built to stardom last year—Brenda and Cobina. And there are other reasons why this show won Mr. Hope a trip to Europe as a bonus from his sponsor. Immediately after the Tuesday night broadcast Bob and his gang start to dream up next week's show, and like most comedians they eat, sleep, dream gags day and night during the following days. Gags are ground out by twelve writers—biggest gag-writing staff in radio. Some gags are good, some are bad. Ace up Mr. Hope's sleeve is his method of finding the good ones. At 9 p.m. every Sunday evening he stages a preview show that lasts an hour and a half and amounts to a hilarious clambake. Scripts, music, sponsor, audience, even Bob get their share of razzing. But it's not all for fun. Gag-writers in the observation booth are busy clocking every laugh, later weed out gags that lay eggs, save the good ones and, with Bob and producer Bill Lawrence, cut the show to half-hour length. It's a full week's work to build and rehearse the broadcast which nets Mr. Hope $6,000 a week.

RIGHT: When a line gets a laugh at the preview, Bob kisses script and coos, "Oh, you little honey, you're going Coast to Coast!" Inset: Broadcast tickets

On the Bandwagon

By Maurice Granger

ONE of the things currently annoying this writer is the claim made by various bandleaders that the BMI-ASCAP battle is ruining their bands' business. You'd think that if this were true the band-maestros would be inclined to work a little cheaper. But those who are yelling the loudest are the very ones who demand a princely fortune for a one-night stand . . . And speaking of one-night stands, colleges are becoming good and tired of the practise of certain big bands which, without warning, break a perfectly good contract. The latest squawk comes from Union College of Schenectady, New York, which had Jimmy Dorsey walk out from under a contract they had made with his representatives to play a prom date in May. Most band bookings made by the band's agent are subject to the leader's approval. In this case a theater had an option on the date in question, which option they exercised. It wasn't really Jimmy's fault, but something should be done about this practise of walking out on college dates. College students are the best customers of most bands.

Mexico and the "Pot o' Gold"

Down Mexico way the inhabitants have requested the "Pot o' Gold" sponsors to please include a Mexican telephone directory. To do so would undoubtedly aid our "Good Neighbor" policy . . . Just before Ozzie Nelson left New York for Hollywood he played the Strand Theater, where all the dressing-rooms backstage are named after various states. As it was cold when Ozzie played the theater, he asked the manager for a warmer dressing-room. P.S. He got the "Florida" room.

Bandata

Several prominent bandleaders have been called for the draft but have taken appeals, arguing that the players in their respective bands are actually their dependents. The names of these leaders have not been revealed, since it might react unfavorably for them. It might . . . Here's an interesting item: A couple of weeks ago Tommy Dorsey played a one-night theater engagement in Bridgeport, Connecticut. During the show a smart-alecky patron hurled a penny onto the stage, barely missing Connie Haines, who was singing at the mike. Tommy saw red, and stepping to the front of the stage he proceeded to tell the unknown smarty what he thought of him. When Tommy finished, the crowd gave him one of the biggest hands he has ever received from an audience of that size . . . The Dinah Shore-Eddie Cantor dispute over the latter's hold on the singer has been settled by an arbitration board. She remains on the Cantor show. Dinah contended that Cantor failed to take up her option, which expired March 12. On the other hand, Cantor claimed that Dinah had her option renewed March 11, the day before it expired. He testified that his secretary handed Dinah the renewal in the broadcasting studio. Dinah had hoped to switch to the Edgar Bergen show at an increase of $550 per week over her present salary.

In Brief

Mildred Bailey, the "Rockin' Chair Lady," will soon front a new band . . . Tommy Tucker, whose sponsor features him on a local spot in New York, may get a chance to go network soon with the program . . . Benny Goodman is another big bandleader who has written a book on "how to do it." He tells how to play a clarinet. P.S. It isn't for beginners . . . Dean Hudson's band is the first swing band in history to secure an early morning network broadcast. They do their stint over thirty-five NBC stations from 7:45 to 8:00 a.m. EST . . . Kay Kyser is just about ready to make his third picture for RKO. It has been tentatively titled "The Ol' Professor" . . . Meadowbrook, the famous swing spot in New Jersey, has long been regarded as the mecca of swing bands. In fact, no sweet band has stayed there for any length of time. The other day, however, the management announced that Sammy Kaye was being booked for four solid weeks, starting April 29 . . . Carl Hoff has left the Al Pearce show in order to go east, where he will organize a dance band of his own.

Purely Personal

Helen O'Connell, of the J. Dorsey band, and Jim Blumenstock, of the Fordham football team, are engaged at long last . . . The Bailey Sisters of the Bernie show are knitting sweaters and socks for Britain . . . A couple of weeks ago Harry James cancelled several recording engagements for his band and trained to Dallas, Texas, where his wife was awaiting a visit from the stork. The stork-greeting over, Harry flew back to New York, only to find when he got there that he had to turn right around and fly back to Beaumont, Texas. His mother had died of heart failure. Larry Clinton kindly consented to stand in for the absent leader when the band opened a theater engagement in Hartford, Connecticut.

Vocalists

A couple of new vocalists who recently made their professional debut are Kitty McLane and Garry Stevens of the Charlie Spivak band . . . Al Kavelin's new singer is named Kay Marie Byrd. She replaced Marjorie Black, who married Dick Rodgers. Dick, you will remember, took over when Will Osborne gave up his band and went west. Incidentally, he's formed another one out there . . . Terry Allen, Larry Clinton's warbler, has taken a walk—to Will Bradley's band. Bradley's former songstress, Jean Sawyer, is soloing at the Panda in New York . . . Tony Pastor has acquired Linda Keene, who formerly sang with Red Norvo and Jack Teagarden. She replaces Kay Little. Kay is now with Bobby Byrne. These sing-song gals certainly do get around!

Band Bookings

Ray Kinney's Hawaiians are back at the Hotel Lexington for a long stay

ON A THEATER TOUR which took him from New York to Hollywood, where he now is making a film, Glenn Miller (above) did his Tues.-Wed.-Thurs. show from various CBS stations. Right: Early morning, Glenn and gang at work

. . . Ted Weems is playing a theater date in Dayton, Ohio, this week . . . Horace Heidt again played for the annual hop at the Zembo Mosque in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, April 18 . . . Jimmy Dorsey has been engaged for the July 4 dance at the Steel Pier in Atlantic City . . . Tommy Dorsey is in New Haven all this week . . . Mitchell Ayres has opened an engagement at the Chase Hotel in St. Louis.

On the DECCA label: The Ink Spots' quarteting of "You're Looking for Romance"; Mildred Bailey's "When That Man is Dead and Gone." VICTOR: Wayne King's "We Could Make Such Beautiful Music"; Tommy Dorsey's "Everything Happens to Me"; Dinah Shore's warbling of "Number Ten Lullaby Lane." COLUMBIA: Horace Heidt's "G'Bye Now"; Benny Goodman's intriguing disk, "My Sister and I." OKEH: Gene Krupa's "Ham-track"; Charlie Spivak's "Two Hearts That Pass in the Night."

MR. FAIRFAX

Mr. Fairfax will give personal answers to all readers who send self-addressed stamped envelopes. Address Arthur Fairfax, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago, Ill.

Miss Evelyn Tedrahu, Cloverdale, Ill.—CHARLES SEARS, tenor, was born in Hoopston, Illinois, on February 8, 1904. His earliest ambition was to be a bandleader. His father and mother both sang in church choirs, and at an early age young Charles followed suit. He attended Hoopston high school and later the Township high school at Rantoul, Illinois, where he won a two-year scholarship to the Charlestown, Illinois, State Teachers' College. However, he passed this up and went to Chicago, where he worked as a window trimmer and card-writer for a chain of stores and on the side sang in church choirs, all for the purpose of paying his singing-teachers. In 1932 he was auditioned at NBC and joined that organization the same year. He still takes voice lessons and has serious operatic ambitions. Sears has dark-brown hair and eyes, weighs 170 pounds and stands five feet seven and one-half inches.

Scouts Defend National Anthem

Dear Sirs:
Our national anthem was recently played over the radio dressed up in the latest swing style. Also many of our classics, by great composers, have been, in plain language, butchered by swing bands.

Are we, the people of America, going to stand by and watch these works of art and culture ruined by someone who thinks swing is prettier than classics, that classics aren't important in themselves? Who wants to hear "The Star-Spangled Banner" played in swing-time and made like the rest of the cheerful little ditties of these times?

We don't object to modern swing, but, after all, it has its place, just the same as any other type of music. Our national anthem is to be cherished, to be loved by all American citizens, native or naturalized. Let's keep it that way.

Wolf Patrol, Troop 99,
Boy Scouts of America,
Bridgeport, Ohio
(Philip Miller, Patrol Leader)

● Sic 'em, Scouts! We're for you!—The Editors.

Irritating Accompaniment

Dear Sirs:
It would be a pleasure to hear some of our delightful vocalists once again (as you said) without a brass band to drown their voices out. Accompanying orchestras often play so loud and such fancy arrangements behind the voices that the background music irritates rather than pleases and spoils the effect of solos.

Elsie K. Coffey, Los Angeles, Calif.

Guitar Guys

Dear Sirs:
Heartily in sympathy with your recent suggestion that a few vocalists actually be accompanied by piano, guitar, organ or small ensemble rather than invariably by a full orchestra. For pleasing and effective accompaniment it's hard to improve on the guitar.

Henry G. Ihrig, Springfield, Ohio

● And there are some mighty fine artists who sing with their own guitar accompaniment waiting for a big radio break—Johnnie Johnston and Tito Guizar, for instance.—The Editors.

Music for Auld Lang Syne

Dear Sirs:
Why does so much of the radio music have to be just to please the younger people? Do the broadcasters think we older people never listen? I have been pleased lately to hear more of the songs I heard and sang myself many years ago. Stephen Foster's songs and many other songs of long ago are beautiful if sung by real singers and not by crooners and blues singers. I've heard Richard Crooks sing "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" a number of times on the "Voice of Firestone" and I know it would take a long time for me to get tired listening to such music.

Mrs. N. E. Carter, Hildreth, Nebr.

NEW—Fringed necklace, made by Pueblo Indians

Ben Patent & Co., Inc.

"THEY are wearing" in New York at this moment—bonny little crocheted hats with front trimmings, pill-boxes with flowers, calots with butterfly bows. Veils are draped over the hair in back or around the brim, never over the face . . . Pleats are appearing in sheers as well as in heavier fabrics . . . Necklines are plunging lower and lower, while bared midriffs are no longer a novelty . . . Indian jewelry, colorful and exciting, will spice your plain, dark wool frocks, add zing to your tweeds . . . Open-toed shoes are again featured. The new "wedges" weighing no more than six ounces—which is considerably lighter than earlier models—should give you a tread as light as thistle-down.

On Being a Pretty Mother

How to Give Your Children a Pretty Mother at the End of an Imperfect or Harried Day was suggested to me this week by a woman whose youngsters take pride in her perennially youthful appearance. Her formula is to thoroughly cleanse the face with whatever method she prefers at the moment, rinse it with clear, cool water and then apply a coating of the unbeaten white of an egg. While the egg dries she lies down with her hips and legs elevated above her head. When she can spare the time she uses a second coating of egg white. After this film has thoroughly dried she washes it off with cold water, smooths in the tiniest possible dab of lubricating cream to offset any tendency to dryness and applies her make-up. Not hard, is it?—and very nice to gaze upon afterwards!

Streamlined Silhouettes

You won't be able to wear your spring clothes smartly this year unless your undergarment fits you snugly and comfortably, molding rather than compressing your silhouette into the streamlines which fashion demands. For the average woman, a one-piece garment is a happier solution of the corset problem than the combination of a girdle and a brassiere. The one in the illustration is a honey, having adequate breast support, a mermaid's slimmness and sufficient length to cover the thighs without dragging down the bosom in order to accomplish it. For evening wear a corselette of this type is almost essential to the smooth, unbroken lines of one's gown. How disillusioning to have one's partner in dancing encircle a "spare tire" rather than the dainty waist line he anticipated! There are no spare tires, sister (of course, you shouldn't have them anyway), when you wear a one-piece garment!

Hollywood Hints

From my grooming-scouts in Hollywood I learn:

1. That yawning is an excellent exercise for the lower part of the face and chin, according to Jim Davies, physical director of Paramount Studios.
2. That Barbara Stanwyck wears a sixteen-inch bob from crown to tip in her current picture, "The Lady Eve," and brushes her hair briskly for fifteen minutes twice a day in order to preserve its shimmering red-gold beauty. "Be sure that your hair-brush bristles are long and stiff enough to reach through the hair right down to the scalp," Barbara cautioned. "Otherwise you will merely groom the surface of your hair and what's underneath will soon be shaggy and at loose ends again. It's best to keep two brushes on hand so that one will always be in spic-and-span readiness."

3. That Ginger Rogers has discovered a collection of sachets made to resemble envelopes. You can get the sachets in all colors, in either crepe or satin, and it's nice to choose the ones filled with your favorite fragrance and lay them among your hankies and your dainty unmentionables. (Which leads me to wonder whether that might not be a practical as well as romantic solution of what to do with old love-letters!)

BULLS & BONERS

Bulls and boners are a part of broadcasting. No matter how experienced the performer or how famous the star, chances are that he will make an occasional slip or a statement with twisted meaning which is extremely funny. See how good your ears are. Try to catch broadcasters in some error—the funnier the better—and send your entry to MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago. The most humorous entries will be printed in this column. Watch for your contribution!

THE STORY OF "THOSE WE LOVE"

1. THIS HAPPY FAMILY SCENE at the Marshalls of "Those We Love" (Mon., CBS) includes, l. to r.: John Marshall (played by Oscar O'Shea), Aunt Emily (Alma Kruger), Kathy (Nan Grey), Kit (Richard Cromwell), Uncle Jerry (Victor Rodman). But what's back of Kit's broad grin?

2. ANSWER is the tricky young widow, Peggy Edwards (Lurene Tuttle), Kit calls on later that evening. Family doesn't approve

3. PEGGY'S husband was killed when he walked into the idling propellor of Kit's airplane. Kit feels responsible, sorry for her

4. UNCLE JERRY doesn't help matters. He lets Kit know what he thinks of the gold-digging Peggy and of Kit's sympathy and infatuation for her. Kit has too much spirit; Uncle Jerry has too little tact!

5. SO AUNT EMILY lectures Uncle Jerry, tells him to keep out of Kit's romance. Try as they may, though, the Marshalls find Kit's predicament theirs—and worry

6. MEANWHILE, there's another side to the story. Will Dr. Leslie Foster (Donald Woods) be able to help? Here he's coming home to his daughter, Amy (Ann Todd)

7. KATHY, Kit's sister and Dr. Foster's sweetheart, has joined them for dinner. Kathy runs an interior-decorating shop with Elaine Dascomb, in spite of Peggy, Kit's real romance

8. DINNER over, Amy has fun with her father, but soon he and Kathy are discussing Kit. Already Kit is paying for Peggy's apartment, giving financial aid he can ill afford to give

9. AMY'S mother is dead and her father has fallen in love now with Kathy. Engrossed in his career, he is rapidly becoming a prominent physician, intends to wed Kathy soon

10. SHOWDOWN comes when Kit and Peggy face his father, Mr. Marshall, and Aunt Emily. Will Kit lose his head and marry scheming Peggy Edwards—or go back to Elaine? Tune in and see!
