What's REALLY What in Radio

by the Masked Marvel

Secretary of the Treasury William Woodin, despite the cares of state, can always find time to listen in on the radio and get a load of how the various nationally known radio orchestra-maestros are rendering his ditty, "Spring Is In My Heart". . . Several times Vincent Lopez happened to be playing it just at the moment when the announcer broke in with station identification. . . Which caused the august cabineteer to conceive the idea that Lopez was purposely going into the number at station-announcement time, because of a dislike for the tune! . . . And Lopez was told as much! . . . Whereupon that solemn-visaged maestro got busy at once, explained that the announcer breaking in on the sec'y's ballad on divers occasions was a mere coincident, and took care to play "Spring Is In My Heart" the next time at a spot on the program where there was no danger of the announcer's broad A's distracting listener-attention from the secretarial melody!

Everyone has heard that if a mischief-maker sucks a lemon in front of a band, the wind-instrument players contract a bad case of lip-puckering, and can't tootle properly. . . Recently it was proved that this is no legend . . . On a recent Sunday night at N. Y.'s Cotton Club, a naughty man produced a lemon and went to work on it. . . Whereupon Duke Ellington's dusky tooters had to cease their outgivings right in the middle of a number! . . . And they do say that the Duke wasn't any too pleased—couldn't see the humor of it.

It is being yarned around that when Anson Weeks' band completed its engagement at N. Y.'s St. Regis Hotel, Weeks paid the boys' fare back to California. . . But it was bus fare he gave them. . . Namely, $50 each. . . That's all they got!

The reason one music-maestro has been auditioning for CBS commercials with so much futility of late is because a gentleman of considerable influence has "put the curse" on him. . . At least, so states that gentleman, without hesitation. . . Seems the maestro was a bit ritzy with the curse-putter-on, who Knew Him When.

When the Tastyest Jesters were all enthused over a plane trip to Winston-Salem not long ago, Dr. Rockwell went into such a powerful discourse on the perils of skyriding in their presence that the terrified Jesters called the flight off.

When Ted Husing blew into Boston a while back, and secluded himself, with his Mrs., in a charming suite beside the Charles River, across from the Stadium, the only explanation he'd give for his being around was, "Though lots of the Boston folks don't like Husing, it's one of Husing's pet towns!"

Bring Out the Hidden Beauty of Your Hair

Mme. Gillespie's

"BLOND-SHAMP"
SHAMPOO

50c

Not a dye. Not a bleach. But a beneficial, health giving shampoo which brings out the natural golden glints of your hair.

Hair that is clean, lustrous and soft reveals its true beauty. That is the secret of Blond Shamp. Its qualities are so fine and beneficial, that it brings out the natural golden beauty of your hair that ordinarily remains dulled and hidden.

Equally fine are:

GOSSIPERS MET AT WALTONS

MARIE STODDARD AND JACK SHANNON

Here's a coincidence for you! Jack Shannon and Marie Stoddard, the "Gossipers" whom you hear each Mon., Wed., & Fri. over WHDH at 7:15, met for the first time in a restaurant operated by their present commercial sponsors, the Walton's Lunch Co.! Here's how it happened:

Back in 1923 Shannon was play- here in Boston at the Colonial Theater, with the Ziegfeld Follies, and Marie was appearing in vaudeville at the old Keith's. One evening they both happened to be enjoying a meal at adjoining tables in the Walton Lunchroom at 242 Tremont st. Both Marie and Jack are rather insane about Boston terriers. Each of them had a pet Boston terrier along, and Boston terriers being a very sociable breed, the two dogs struck up a frolicsome acquaintance.

This naturally led a pair of Boston terrier-fanciers such as Marie and Jack into a conversation. Marie and Jack got talking about the wonders of Boston terriers, and the superiority of that variety of dog over all other earthly canines. As each outdid the other in praise of Boston terriers, a friendship was born. And this friendship between Marie and Jack culminated eventually in a radio partnership—a partnership now sailing along under the banner of the famous restaurant chain of the Walton Company—and it was while dining on Walton good things to eat that the pair saw each other for the first time!

It is not surprising that the "Gossipers" are stimulating business for even so well known and well patronized a concern as the Walton Lunchrooms. For their type of broadcast is the sociable, jolly variety which naturally makes listeners thing of sitting comfortably somewhere and partaking of pleasant viands. So the Gossip-broadcasts tie up nicely with the kind of business the Walton folks are in, namely, the providing of appetizing food in cheery and clean surroundings. The Gossipers are forever discussing their cup of tea, and the supposed scene of their amusing chatter is a kitchen. So after listening to them, anyone who happens to be anywhere near a Walton Lunchroom is pretty likely to go forth and sample the good Walton food of which they are reminded.

TALKS ON MODERN BOY

DR. MATHER ABBOTT

With a background of 35 years' contact with boys in two large preparatory schools and as a Yale professor, Dr. Mather Almon Abbott, headmaster of the Lawrenceville School for Boys, is presenting to a radio audience his impressions of how the modern boy looks at the modern world in a series of four talks over a National Broadcasting Company network.

Dr. Abbott is heard as guest speaker on the Woman's Radio Review on four alternate Tuesdays which began April 11, at 3:30 p. m. The talks are broadcast over an extensive NBC-WEEI network.

The reactions of the American youth of today to the social and ethical upheavals now going on around him are analyzed by the distinguished educator.

Only One

New England is the only section of the country receiving a special day-after-day probability in its radio weather report, according to the Connecticut Chamber of Commerce. In its bulletin calling attention to the 72-hour forecast broadcast daily at 12:15 over WBZ and WBZA, the Chamber points out that "this service was started in April 1931 under a special dispensation by the Weather Bureau in Washington, secured through Benjamin W. Ellis, director of the Extensive Service at Storrs, Conn. for the particular benefit of farmers. New England is the only section of the country receiving such service."

Transfer Programs

NBC observers of program trends sense that the transfer by their sponsors of several "pep" broadcasts from early morning spots to afternoon or evening may imply that the radio audience is getting out of bed in better mood since inception of the "New Deal." In which case, they argue there would be less need for programs designed to provoke singing in the bathtub.

Anyhow, following the removal of Grin and Bearit in their two-in-one routine from morning to afternoon, the popular humor fantasy King Kill Kare is filling a new spot on WBZ and WBZA at 6:15 to 6:30, Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

FEMININE HYGIENE

Use Lydia E. Pinkham's

Sanative Wash

Here at last is a safe new anti-septic. Unlike most other products on the market which are advertised for feminine hygiene, the formula for Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash was prepared for this one purpose only. It has been hospital tested and proved to be safe.

Try this marvelous new product. It is cleansing . . . refreshing . . . and best of all it is a perfect deodorant. Buy a bottle from your druggist today.

If you will write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Dept. L, Lynn, Mass., we will be glad to send you a trial bottle.—Adv.

FU MANCHU'S SLAVE GIRL

SUNDA LOVE

Karameneh, the exotic slave girl heroine of the "Fu Manchu" novels of Sax Rohmer, comes to life in the person of Sunda Love as the "Fu Manchu Mysteries" are heard over the WNAC-Columbia network each Monday at 8:30 p. m. Plots, counterplots and every now and again an appalling murder, are the lot of Miss Love in the radio dramatization of the machinations of the sinister Chinese doctor, as the idol of Dr. Petrie's heart.

Human After All

John Charles Thomas, famous operatic baritone, paid a social call on James Melton. Other guests expected them to talk music, radio or even the concert stage. But they didn't. Instead, they went into the kitchen of Melton's pent house and Jimmy made spaghetti and Thomas made the sauce. Then they came out and sang a duet from "The Pearl Fishers."

FROM THE STUDIOS

It's Greek to Him

When we first met George Givot, as George Burns once said, we couldn't understand him. Now that we understand him, nobody understands us. You'll get the idea when you listen to the irrepressible George as the "Greek Grocer" on the Old Gold program, loading the ether with a dialect thick enough to be sliced with the dulllest of butter-knives. Despite his odd way of murdering the King's English, George is an American, born in Omaha. Listen for him Wednesday with Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, at 10:00 P. M. over WNAC.

IN EIGHTH SEASON

With the opening of the 1933 baseball season recently, Fred Hoey, pictured on this week's cover of RADIOLOG, inaugurated his eighth season of baseball reporting via the microphone. A former newspaper reporter of the game, Hoey's association with baseball dates back over thirty years, during which time he has been a player, baseball writer and official scorer.

His knowledge of the game covers every phase of baseball. After several years in the game as a writer, he turned to radio seven years ago, and his vivid descriptions of the plays given in straight baseball language, soon won him popular favor throughout New England. During the past couple of seasons his audience of women fans has grown by leaps and bounds, which he attributes to the fact that technical phrases are eliminated in his talk on the air.

Recognized as one of the best, if not the best, announcers in the entire country, Hoey would undoubtedly be called upon to report the World Series for the Columbia network were it not for the fact that Ted Husing has an iron-clad contract which permits him to report any sport event he chooses.

His Dislikes

"What's your favorite sport?" asked a high school girl interviewer of William Merrigan Daly. "Dodging old duffers in their dotage who insist upon telling me their golf scores," answered Daly. "I loathe golf players and drivers who stick to the middle of the road. Both are pests."

Do You Know Your Radio Stars?

1. Who are "Grin and Bearit" at WBZ?
  2. What famous local baritone is now singing over an NBC-WEEI network each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday?
  3. What nationally known band is supposed to play "The Sweetest Music This Side of Heaven"?
  4. Who is to be the star on the new Chase & Sanborn Program?
  5. What is Jimmie McHale's Orchestra's theme song?

Tune in on Some Gossip !!

By Hendrik V. Fulton

Now that summer is close at hand, numerous names of the radio firmament are departing from the ether lanes. . . Some never to return in a feature way again. . . It has been ever thus. . . The public is constantly crying for something new, and though radio has been extremely slow in recognizing this, advertisers have, and they are the folks who pay the bills. . . Those who have been re-signed for next season are Jack Pearl and Eddie Cantor. . . Just two out of the hundreds that you have read about this past season. . . Did you know that Fred Hoey is rated one of the best all-around sport experts in the business? . . . Fred is equally at home at a hockey rink, football field or track meet; yet we only hear him announcing the ball games. . . Price is the reason. . . Mildred Bailey due back in a new series. . . What's become of Earle Nelson? . . . Nary a word have we heard about Earle since he departed for Gotham a month ago. . . Radio is having a very trying time of it seeking to convince brewers that radio programs will increase their business. . . To us, the Colonel and Budd are radio's most refreshing comedians. . . And they strictly belong to radio, being one of the few sensations discovered within its circles. . . If you are not tuning in the Four Collegians on the WBZ airwaves, you are passing up a hit. . . The Boswell Sisters will tour the south and west with Jack Pearl and Paul Whiteman's Orchestra. . . Paul will be heard during Pearl's broadcasts too. . . Bing Crosby devoting his time to the talkies, with radio offerings very few indeed. . . It will be very tough on Graham McNamee to have to return to regular announcing after his Ed Wynn vacation. . . Jimmie Wallington did a swell job on that circus broadcast. . . When a female voice is needed on a program, Helen Barr's tag is the most frequently mentioned at the WNAC studios. . . And despite the fact that she is a radio veteran, Helen still does a very sweet job. . . In any other section of the country Helen would be the toast of the town. . .

Talk has Rudy Vallee ready to try it again. . . This time with a blonde. . . The head of a large New England network believes that H. V. Kaltenborn, the newscaster, is "too opinated". . . When it comes to news reporting, the Daily Record Town Crier and Edwin C. Hill walk off with the cake. . . . The most influential name in broadcasting circles today is John Royal of the NBC forces. . . Royal is a former newspaper and theatrical executive. . . In the old days John was with the B. F. Keith interests in New England, later manager of the Palace Theatre in Cleveland. . . With the advent of radio he became a partner of WTAM in Cleveland, moving from there to NBC. . . His star is rapidly rising in the radio world. . . Kate Smith will vacation this summer. . . Phil Lord will be off the airplanes for a year. . . That's just how Phil feels at the present time, but if his health improves he'll return a great deal sooner. . . Lennie Hayton's orchestra is getting plenty of bids from sponsors, but the money is very small. . . Baton wavers are being tossed around in Manhattan, with numerous name programs using two pianos instead of the usual band. . . Amos 'n' Andy talkies are due shortly. . . Myrt and Marge slated to leave the air for the season. . . Columbia executives are high pressuring the sponsors with little or no result to date. . .

Tidbits on the Radio Folks

by Beau Boston

Ben Gross, N. Y. Daily News radio editor, is one guy who loves to praise his employer, and will sing paeans of laudation on the way the News treats its editorial staff as long as your ear holds out. . . Ann Butler, stage comedienne now doing swell on WJZ, got a torch-letter from one gal begging her to sing, "Farewell to Arms" because it might bring the gal's sweetsie back. . .

The letter was so all-fired pathetic that when Ann went on the air next night to do "Farewell to Arms," as requested by the heart-rent femme, she could hardly get through it. . . Her sentimentality got the better of her and she nearly accompanied her singing with an obligato of sniffles. . . Yet when the story was sent to Nick Kenny, Daily Mirror radio editor, he remarked that it was a fine, prony tale indeed! . . . Vincent Lopez can't give the anti-Hitler-ites much comfort—says that according to Numerology, Hitler will remain in the driver's seat for SEVEN years. . . (Another case of the seven-year itch, eh) . . . Boston's most famous wedding-maestro, Art Rubin, claiming to one and all that his discovery, Sally Harris (now WLOE ing), is going to hit in the colossal manner, and it can't be otherwise. . .

Lou Holtz will be the next comedian to wrestle with material, amidst much ballyhoo and hoorah, on the air. . . There was a great to-do at a hotel right here among our New England midst when one orchestra-leader's bandboys began to wax suspicious that the cut which, according to the maestro, the hotel had ordered, really hadn't been ordered by the hotel at all. . . The boys conceived the idea that the maestro was just pocketing the mazuma, and what cain resulted! . . . Boston lad who's trying to break into radio continuity-writing in New York was told that his first script was out because he'd indirectly hinted at that something known as a "pansy" . . . Picture, then, his bewilderment when he tuned in on a Rudyvallee program and a guest comic pulled a play on the word, "raindeer," which had as much pansy-atmosphere as the gag he'd been rebuked for writing. . . Incidentally, this aspiring Bostonian was told by one person well acquainted with the peculiarities of sponsors that sometimes, in reading a script, if a sponsor's eye lights on a single word he deems unrefined, such as "lousy," he immediately chucks the whole script, without seeing if maybe the rest of it isn't okay. . .

During his final week at a local hotel, one maestro sort of anticipated the end of the drought. . . Radio's Inez Evans and Bob Hunter reported readying for Cupid-joys. . . Harry Richman looks on his way to a beer program. . . And watch Mae West, radioistically speaking. . . Gent you heard paging Phillip Morris was none other than Linus Travers. . . Linus, by the way, can hang over one of those Chalet pianos at dawning-time in a rapture of musical appreciation. . . Something askew with radio when Bob Emery, who is one of the greatest radio salesmen ever developed, isn't achieving more current prominence on the airwaves. . . L. Reisman coyly says "No" to requests to yell out "Digga-Digga-Doo" . . . Very much the artist, we hazard, is now the once digga-digga-dooing Reisman. . . (Some liked him better when he was less cultural) . . .

FAMOUS ACTORS IN NEW SERIES

PEGGY ALLENBY

Famous guest stars from Broadway and Hollywood are brought to the microphone each week to head the casts of the new and revised Pages of Romance dramatizations, which are heard from coast-to-coast over an enlarged NBC-WBZ network each Sunday at 5:30 p. m.

Actors and actresses who face the microphone in the leading roles of the weekly dramas include many of the best known stage and screen personalities, and some who have never been heard on the air before. Their supporting casts are selected from outstanding radio artists such as Peggy Allenby, Ailyn Joslyn, Ned Weaver and other familiar microphone performers who have participated in previous Pages of Romance Broadcasts.

Graham Harris, who continues as the conductor of the orchestra, has directed many outstanding musical groups. He conducted the Capitol Theatre orchestra in New York for three years and has played with the New York, Chicago and Detroit symphonies.

Coming Along

Few, if any, in the local radio firmament have ascended the ladder to radio stardom with the rapidity and consummate ease that has characterized the rise of Russell Dorr within the last year. His notable contributions to recent Pro-Ker programs over WEEI have been nicely adapted to the general scheme of things on that new Monday evening feature which has earned a most favorable rating with the local audience.

No Comparison

Radio has it all over the stage from the performer's point of view, according to Singin' Sam. The big basso harks back to his days as a minstrel and points out that no radio star ever has to break the ice in the wash basin in a one-horse hotel.

In the old-time minstrel shows, he recalls, each black-face performer had his own pail of water—running water was out of the question, of course—to wash off his make-up after the show. Many times he had to break the crust of ice which had formed on the water during the show.

Do You Know Your Radio Stars?*(Answers)

1. Harry Michaels and Warren Hull.
2. Ranny Weeks.
3. Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians.
4. Bert Lahr.
5. "Out of Nowhere."

GRAY HAIR? KEEP IT GRAY

WITHOUT USING HAIR DYE

If your hair is gray, you can keep it so without unsightly yellow streaks that are so common. Simply wash your hair with Madame Gillespie's White Shampoo. It is not a dye, but it will bring out that silvery sheen that is so admired in gray hair. Buy Madame Gillespie's White Shampoo for 50 cents a bottle at

"RADIOCRACY" by Frank Luther noted N B C Star

Hi Ya? Fine I hope. Yipeeeeee! (I've just been looking through a stockman's catalog: spring styles in cowboy boots, saddles, overalls an' shootin-irons. Very wildwest).

Richard Gordon is to be president of the brand-new Remote Control Club that's to have a swell suite on the roof of the snooty Hotel Weston.

Gordon's a great character actor. He's Sherlock Holmes with his high voice, and a Great Divide hombre with his low. Told me yesterday with great enthusiasm that Amos 'n' Andy are the greatest character actors the world has ever known.

Ever hear about Irving Berlin's piano? Irving only plays in one key, F; but the whole keyboard of his piano shifts left and right at will; so if he wants to play in B flat, he just shifts the keyboard over five notches, plays in F, and it comes out B flat. Nice?

Harry Link, another Tinkletown celeb, only plays in one key; and like nearly all one-key-only players he plays in G flat, because its full of black keys, and ALL one-key-only players LOVE to play on the black keys.

In the big NBC master control room are two graphs that resemble a stock-ticker. A paper ruled in 10's from 10 to 60, rolls slowly under an electric pen that jiggles constantly back and forth, showing the amount of gain (volume) on that network every second that it's on the air. It's engrossing to watch that tireless little pen (writing in red for the Red network, and in green for the Blue) as it flutters softly for crooners and muted fiddles, and darts excitedly to the right with the drums and sopranos.

Well, the Manhattan Merry-Go-Round has moved into the spot following the C & S hour Sunday nights. Jean Sargeant, David Percy, Gene Rodemich's orchestra, to say nothing of the Men About Town.

What Ross Gorman calls "Save-the-dayers" when things fall apart—the guys (usually fiddle players) who make a jump for the mike and play the wrong thing—in the wrong key.

Rubinoff speaks a little a la Russky. His Italian man-Friday-Phil Salta—had been ill. When Phil walked into the studio, Dave said "Hello PHEEL, how do ya FILL," and the orchestra rolled out of their seats.

TOURING MANHATTAN WITH ALYCE SIEMENS

Naturally the greatest radio gossip of the week was that of the Rudy Vallees definitely calling it quits. . . With Rudy gaylike, and smiling optimistically into the future, not letting his marital affairs interfere with his detailed preparations for his weekly yeast-hour air shows. . . A far happier Rudy than the sadly bewildered Rudy we interviewed last summer at Bournehurst, when he was dancehall-touring, at the time of the last rift. . . Take it from us that this is for keeps! . . . And why so much to-do? . . . Millions are incompatibly carrying on because they haven't the courage to out with it! . . . Bravo, Rudy! . . . Mary Boland terribly thrilled with the idea of being on Rudy's program, and dashing about madly to get Dorothy Parker's permission to use her recent New Yorker mag "diary" contrib, changed to a phone conversation affair. . . We discover that the Hub's six-foot Gordon Graham, of the Funnyboners trio, has been studying voice like mad ever since he's been a Gothamite. . . And will continue doing so for years hence. . . His ambish is to concert-sing-tour. . . The while wisecracking regularly with the Funnyboners. . . He originally went to the Hub to be a dramatic critic, and ended up there as a master-of-ceremonies who sang classic songs at the Oriental Symphony restaurant! . . . Now he's a New York dandy when stepping out with his fetching-looking frau! . . . He wears spats and cutaways. . . Carries a cane and sports a mustache! . . . Ben Gross, Daily News radio columnist, does three entirely different columns per day. . . Is chained to his ear-phones till the midnight hour, but on his days off, Saturdays and Sundays, never even twists a dial a teeny, weeny bit! . . . No street car conductor holiday for Ben! . . . Hub's RKO Keith's recent orchestra-leading emcee, Stan Meyers, getting too popular with the Pretty Ones who frequent the Monte Carlo Club here. . . They annoy him with phone calls, from the phones on each table about the ringside, when he and his music men are on the air. . . And does he blush at some of the Broadway gals' questions? . . . Nick Kenny, billed as the poet-columnist, (Daily Mirror), who has been on WMCA Saturday nights for a year or more, doing an okay job of it at the old Roxy Theatre with his "Radio Scandals" . . . Introduces his proteges as the "nobodies of today who may be the somebodies of tomorrow". . . With Irish Frank Connors and stunning barrister Fred Morrith sensational. . . Vin-Lopez surprising everyone, turning into a wit by telling about his Sun-walk through Central Park and meeting an old Jewish man who was scolding a small boy. . . Vince asked him what he was scolding him for and the old Jewish fellow answered him, "Ach! Abie is a bad boy. . . Won't come home and listen to Father Coughlin!" . . .

SOOTHING THE PALATE

By MARJORIE MILLS, Director of the New England Radio Kitchen of the Air

Father may worry about declining stock prices, but mother can chuckle over persistently lower food costs and plan a grand and glorious Sunday dinner without denting the budget seriously. Even the chocolate Bavarian suggester for Sunday's dessert isn't going to be too expensive; the hint of coconut gives it delicious flavor.

If new asparagus and peas are still too high for you, have string beans and celery in cream with the fricassee chicken or fowl and the sweet potatoes. Another vegetable wrinkle is a combination of carrots and parsnips, cooked, mashed, seasoned with salt, pepper and lots of butter and a bit of cream. Has to be tried to be appreciated.

Try rhubarb whip with custard sauce and a garnish of orange sections of strawberries. Rhubarb and pineapple shortcake served with whipped cream is another spring-like dessert. Cottage pudding or apple dumplings with maple syrup sauce will interest any hungry family, waiting to see what mother has produced for dessert.

Fried Mush

Mix one cup of corn meal to a paste with cold water and then add it to a pint of boiling water with a pinch of salt and a little flour. Add it gradually so that the boiling does not cease. After it has thickened, remove to a double boiler and allow it to steam for several hours until thoroughly cooked. The flour makes it easier to slice when cold. Empty baking powder tins make excellent molds. They should be rinsed inside with cold water before packing the cooked mush down inside. Smooth off the top. When ready to use, butter and heat a griddle and lightly flour the slices before placing them on the hot griddle.

String Beans and Celery in Cream

1-2 pound string beans
1 stalk celery
Salt and pepper
1-4 cup cream

Cook the vegetables separately in as little salted water as possible with the kettle tightly covered. String beans will cook in 15 to 20 minutes, usually, and celery cut in half-inch pieces in 10 to 15 minutes. When finished, most of the water should have evaporated. Put the two vegetables together, add the cream and heat. Add more seasoning if needed.

Chocolate Bavarian Cream

2 tablespoons gelatin
1-2 cup cold water
2 cups milk
1-2 cup sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
2 squares chocolate
1-2 cup cocoanut
1 cup cream, whipped

Soak the gelatin in the water. Place the milk, sugar, salt and chocolate, cut in four or five pieces, in the top of a double boiler and cook until the chocolate is melted. Beat with a wheel egg-beater a few seconds to insure smoothness. Add the gelatin and stir until dissolved. Remove from the fire, sand in cold water, stir occasionally.

When it begins to thicken, fold in the cocoanut and the whipped cream. Pour into a mold, chill and when set serve with whipped cream or with a custard sauce.

Allow two slices of toast, four oysters and a thin slice of bacon for each serving. Drain each oyster, dry on cheesecloth, then dip in cracker crumbs, then in melted butter and roll in more more cracker crumbs. Arrange on a broiler and broil until the edges of the shellfish begin to curl.

Lay the oysters on a slice of buttered toast, cover with a lettuce leaf dipped in tartar sauce, add a slice of cooked bacon and another slice of toast. Serve very hot.

THE MIRROR OF FASHION

By NANCY HOWE—WNAC

It's a little too late to talk of new Spring ensembles, because most of us planned those long before Easter and have since had the pleasure of wearing them. . . . However, it's never too late to talk about those little details that "make" a costume by their addition, and do so much toward relieving the monotony of clothes.

One of the smart New York shops lays special emphasis on ways and means of "dressing up" our suits and coats and of making ourselves feel that we present a "different" appearance every time we emerge from our boudoirs. We're going to pass a few of those suggestions along to you, with the hope that we can help you stick to the resolutions some of you may have made, to the effect that you will definitely, make a few clothes do, this season.

Gloves we have dealt with in detail. . . . We refer you to last week's Radiolog. . . . if you're interested. . . . We ask you to remember, however, that no one item is quite so important this season. Change your gloves with your blouse, hat or collar and lo and behold! you have achieved an entirely different effect. For wear with the dark silk dress, there is a clever braided organdie sailor with dotted organdie band, crocheted gloves with organdie cuffs and matching collar. The tailored street dress takes on a new air of chic, with the addition of the Talbot starched pique cape collar and gloves that match. That same frock calls for one of the rope-edged suede leather belts. If you lean to the tailored suit, don't fail to purchase several Ascot ties. . . . especially those of hand-blocked plaid linen. . . . and for a softer effect, you'll like the polka dot scarfs of lacquered satin. Plaid organdie gilet waistcoats also go with this type of suit, as do gay boutonnières in crepe satin. . . . Don't try to wear them all at once, of course, but do have them on hand and don them turn and turn about, according to your mood of the moment. . . . Oh, yes! . . . and gay little hankies are . . . (may we?) . . . "not to be sneezed at." Ask at your favorite store, to see those that come from abroad. . . . those described so well by the name "Language of the Flowers." One of those, saucily peeping out of a pocket, will do much to relieve the monotony of a plain suit. . . . especially when it helps carry out some color-contrast scheme.

Handbags. . . . must be right! There are those of pigskin grain to match your gloves; pouch bags of perforated capeskin; "Lovebird" bags. . . . in fact envelope styles, which may be had in either crepe or leather, and many others equally fascinating and practical. Very inexpensive and altogether charming, are the pleated knit bag and scarf sets in plaid. By the way, we hope you've noticed how important plaid has become. It's an attractive, colorful idea. . . . this note of plaid. We think you'll like it!

Really, we've just "touched" on this subject of "chic trifles," as you'll find when you "shop about a bit," but if we've managed to give you an idea or two, then we've accomplished all we set out to do. . . . Many chic sportswomen like to assemble their own active sports costumes, gathering the parts here and there. There's however, a golf suit, designed by Lanvin, that is proving very successful. It has a many-gored skirt of red-brown wool, a striped sweater, hip-length cape coat and a large brown sailor hat.

Well, that all our space will permit, so until next week, "Goodbye everybody."

FROM THE FANS

C. S. G. (No. Andover, Mass.)—We will do our best to take care of your request, as Francis J. Cronin has just returned to the air.

T. D. W. (W. Roxbury, Mass.)—WNBH is no longer affiliated with the Yankee Network. Due to the mutual consent of both parties, the contract between the two was not renewed at its expiration.

A. T. N. (S. Boston, Mass.)—Ruth Yorke plays the part of "Marie, the Little French Princess." Richard Collins is played by James Meighan, a nephew of Tom Meighan, the noted screen star, and Le Pelletier is played by Allyn Joslyn. Gerry Harrison is thirty-three years old and is married.

E. M. S. (Maynard, Mass.)—Lloyd Del Castillo was born on April 2, 1893. Jack Beauvais on August 27, 1909, and Ray Giradin on October 23, 1909. Del takes part in the Edison Salute dramatizations.

R. V. (Lexington, Mass.)—You are correct in assuming that Eddie Duchin, who conducts his orchestra at the Central Park Casino, was born in Boston. He got his start as a pianist with Leo Reisman's Orchestra.

J. C. (Bar Harbor, Me.)—It is Will Osborne's Orchestra which is heard with Pedro De Cordoba. De Cordoba has been a member of the "March of Time" cast and has been featured in "Roses and Drums." You're telling me!

B. L. T. (Newton, Mass.)—In answer to your request, a picture of George Givot appears in this week's RADIOLOG. He attended the University of Chicago. Yup, it's hard to believe!

N. R. (Roxbury, Mass.)—Jack Dempsey's broadcasts are not heard locally. WABC on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. is the time. Yes, it's a sponsored series.

L. D. B. (Amesbury, Mass.)—The John Cali to whom you refer is the banjo player in B. A. Rolfe's Orchestra. The orchestra, incidentally, consists of 45 pieces.

B. A. Rolfe was absent from radio for a year and a half.

G. P. (Danbury, Conn.)—Eddy Brown is the violinist whom you heard over WOR. No, WOR is not a member of either CBS or NBC; however, it ranks as probably the leading independent station in the entire country.

L. H. S. (Revere, Mass.)—Henry Burbig was the comedian on the old Ceco program and Norman Brokenshire, the announcer. Not so long ago, Henry appeared as guest artist on Rudy Vallee's program.

N. G. L. (Taunton, Mass.)—Nat Silkret's Orchestra is heard on the new "Evening in Paris" series. Pierre Brugnon is not broadcasting at present. Mary McCoy is the same one whom you have heard over NBC.

B. Y. (Salem, Mass.)—The fellow Aaronson, whom you heard with Paul Whiteman imitating radio stars is not on the air. He is touring vaudeville and recently appeared at the Scollay Square Theatre in Boston.

G. K. (Beverly, Mass.)—Johnny Hart was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 21, 1900. His real name is John Arthur and he has played in vaudeville. At one time he also appeared in the "Follies."

M. H. (Framingham, Mass.)—Ed Wynn's real name is Edwin Leopold; he is married. "The Perfect Fool" seems to have gone the way of all flesh, and in its stead is "The Fire Chief."

T. L. L. (Lancaster, Mass.)—That gossip on Rudy Vallee seems to be on the level. Rudy will probably be on the Fleischmann Hour for a long time yet. He is only thirty one years old.

B. M. H. (Southbridge, Mass.)—Johnny Hamp is the orchestra leader whom you have in mind. He has played in Boston several times. It was his orchestra who succeeded Guy Lombardo' Royal Canadians a couple of years ago at the Roosevelt Grill, when Guy left on his barnstorming trip.
