SOUND: JOE'S AND FRANK'S STEPS IN APARTMENT CORRIDOR, NO ECHO

JOE: It was Tuesday, August 12th. It was warm in Los Angeles.

We were working the day watch out of Homicide Division, Missing Persons Detail. My partner's Frank Smith. The boss is Captain Lohrman. My name's Friday. We were on our way out from the office and it was 10:14 A.M. when we got to 1865 Malabar Street...(SOUND: DOOR KNOCK) ...the manager's apartment.

SOUND: OFF MIKE. IN THE MANAGER'S APARTMENT WE HEAR THE SOUND OF A BABY CRYING.

JOE: Better try it again.

FRANK: Yeah.

SOUND: FRANK MOVES TO THE DOOR AND KNOCKS, THIS TIME, LOUDER.

BEAT

BARBARA: (OFF MIKE, YELLING) Just a minute....I'm movin' as fast as I can.

SOUND: THE SOUND OF THE BABY CRYING GOES OFF MIKE BUT CONTINUES.
FRANK: Sounds like she's got trouble.

JCE: Yeah.

SOUND: THE DOOR OPENS

BARBARA: Yeah?

JCE: Mrs. Fleischer?

BARBARA: Yeah. What di'ya want?

JCE: Police officers. We'd like to talk to you.

SOUND: FROM THE NEXT ROOM, THE BABY TAKES OFF AGAIN.

BARB: C'mon in. I gotta take care of that kid.

SOUND: JOE AND FRANK ENTER THE ROOM

JOE (TOGETHER) Thank you...thanks.

SOUND: THEY CLOSE THE DOOR BEHIND THEM.

SOUND: BARBARA FADES INTO NEXT ROOM. THE BABY CONTINUES TO CRY.

FRANK: Sounds like colic to me.

JCE: That right?

FRANK: Sure. Sounds like colic. Wonder if she's got a hot water bottle.

JCE: What?

FRANK: Hot water bottle. Put it on the stomach.

JCE: Makes him feel better.

FRANK: Both our kids had the colic. Wore out three hot water bottles.

JCE: On two kids?

FRANK: Lost the stopper on one of 'em.
JOE: Yeah.

SOUND: UNDER THE ABOVE THE BABY HAS STOPPED CRYING AND BARBARA
SNEAKS BACK INTO THE ROOM. SHE CLOSES THE DOOR QUIETLY BEHIND HER.

BARB: Baby's teething. Havin' a rough time.

FRANK: Oh.

JOE: This is my partner, Frank Smith. My name's Friday. We'd like to ask you some questions about one of your tenants.

BARB: Oh? Which one?

FRANK: A Mrs. Shipley. We understand she had apartment 207.

BARB: Yeah. She did. What about her?

JOE: You know where we can get in touch with her?

BARB: Ain't got any idea.

FRANK: When'd you see her last?

BARB: Guess it must have been ... month ago.

JOE: Possible you might be able to give us an exact date?

BARB: If I coulda done that, I'd have told you right out. I got nothin' to hide.

JOE: We didn't mean to say you did.

BARB: Sounded like it. Sounded a awful lot like it. I'm gonna be honest with you.

JOE: Yes ma'am.

BARB: When Harriet first moved in here, we got along fine.

She was all the time wantin' me to tell her how to take care of the baby, when it came.
FRANK: Yes ma'am.

BARB: Got along just fine. Used to have our little cuppa coffee in the afternoon. Chummy. Then all of a sudden it all got different.

JOE: How's that?

BARB: Just did. Her husband was overseas. In the Army, I guess. Harriet missed him pretty much. Anyways she was always sayin' how she did. Wished he could be here when the baby was born. Got terrible depressed.

JOE: Uh huh.

BARB: Moody. Y'know?

JOE: Yeah.

BARB: I did what I could to cheer her up. Used to go up there and we'd sit and talk. Taught her how to knit. Gave her some needles and yarn as a little present. I thought maybe it'd give her somethin' to think about. Kinda take her mind off her and her husband. (HEAT) Didn't do no good.

JOE: How long had her husband been away?

BARB: 4 months this time. He's over in Japan I think. Army.

JOE: Yeah.

BARB: Harriet used to go out once in a while. Go down to the show. Seemed like just about every picture she saw made her sadder. I guess that's why she did it. Just got so sad she couldn't take it no more.

JOE: What's that?
1 BARB: Tried to kill herself.
2 FRANK: Mrs. Shipley?
3 BARB: Yeah. I got the kids in bed one night and went up there.
4 I hadn't heard nothin' from her that day, so I went up to 5 see how she was. Good thing I did too. Found her right
6 there in the livin' room. She'd cut her wrists. Right
7 away, I called for the doctor and all the ambulances and 8 police come runnin' around. Took her to the hospital.
9 Big deal. Guess I found her in time though. They 10 pulled her through.
11 JOE: Uh huh.
12 BARB: I walk up there and find her dyin'. (INDICATES) That far 13 from death's door. And when she comes home from the 14 hospital... what thanks d'ya think I get?
15 BEAT
16 JOE: Go ahead.
17 BARB: Nothin'. Not a single solitary word do I get. She's 18 mad. Says I shoulda left her alone. Let her done it.
19 Come in here when she got back and read me off in words
20 that I ain't used to hearin'.
21 JOE: Uh huh.
22 BARB: I got five kids, Mister. They take a lot of time, and I
23 ain't got enough to go runnin' around after nobody who 24 don't thank a person for savin' their life like that.
25 I called it quits right then. Right at that minute....
26 we were no longer friends.
1 JOE: When did she make the attempt on her life?
2 BARB: Last September. I don’t remember the date. I think it was the second...maybe the third week. I’m not sure about what day it was. Any way...after I save her life, she’s mad at me.
5
6 JOE: She have any people here in Los Angeles, d’ya know?
7 BARB: I never heard her talk of none. She’s got a sister. I know that, but I don’t know where she is. Don’t think Harriet ever said.
10 JOE: What’d she say to you when she left? Give you any idea where she was goin’?
12 BARB: I didn’t even see her. She didn’t even come by and say so long...goodbye...take a jump...nothin’. She just left. One night she’s here....next morning she’s gone.
15 JOE: She get any mail while she was here?
16 BARB: Yeah. Once in a while she’d get a letter from her husband. Then there was a couple of letters from San Francisco. I don’t know who they was from.
19 JOE: Uh huh. She take everything with her? All of her personal things?
21 BARB: Nothin’. Left it all here. ‘Course, it’s not much, but it’s all here.
23 JOE: Where are the things?
24 BARB: Downstairs in the basement. I got it all put away in case she ever comes back. Gonna cost her too. Storage and for me to pack it. I told you...it isn’t much. Some dresses...few clothes for the baby...phonograph, couple of records. That’s about it. Y’can see ‘em if you want.
1 PRANK: We'd like to take a look at them before we leave.
2 BARB: Sure thing. Can't let you take 'em though. I gotta
3 collect for the storage.
4 PRANK: Yes ma'am.
5 JOE: Mrs. Shipley have any close friends that you know of?
6 BARB: Not that I know. Course she might have had some down at 7 the Dreampalace.
8 JOE: What's that?
9 BARB: Where she worked. A dancehall downtown. She was a kinda 10 hostess there.
11 JOE: That's the name of the place? Dreampalace?
12 BARB: Yeah. She might have had some friends down there. None 13 of 'em ever came here though. Least if they did, I never 14 saw 'em.
15 JOE: Uh huh. Do you know of any reason she might have left in 16 such a hurry?
17 BARB: Not right off, I can't think of one. There was somethin'
18 wrong with her though when she came back from the hospital.
19 Y'know when she had the baby. She was worried about 20 somethin'.
21 JOE: You know what it was?
22 BARB: No. All I know is that when she'd been home a couple of 23 days, she came down here and asked me to do some work on 24 the apartment. I told her if she wanted anything done, 25 she could do it herself after the way she talked to me.
What'd she want done?

Silliest thing I ever heard of. She didn't have anything to steal.

Ma'am?

She wanted all the locks on the doors changed.

10:46 A.M. In the company of the apartment manager, Barbara Fleischer, Frank and I went down to the basement and looked through the missing woman's effects. Other than the phonograph, several cardboard boxes of used baby clothes and cheap woman's dresses, we found nothing.

There were no snapshots or letters to aid us in ascertaining where she might have gone. We asked Mrs. Fleischer to notify us in the event that she heard from the Shipley woman. We put in a call to Georgia Street Receiving Hospital and verified the story about the attempted suicide. 11:15 A.M. we checked the phonebook for the address of the Dreampalace Dance Hall. It was on the second floor of a large building at the corner of Seventh and Margo Streets. On the front of the building were several faded photographs of contest winners with the cups they'd won, and the name of the proprietor, Ernest Lasnik. We went upstairs. It was a large barnlike room with crepe paper birds hanging over the lights. In rear of the place, at one of the tables, we found Lasnik. He was eating his lunch.

SOUND: THERE IS A SLIGHT ECHO ON ALL OF THE SOUNDS IN THE FOLLOWING SCENE.
1 FRANK: Mr. Lasnik?
2 ERNEST: (WITH HIS MOUTH FULL OF FOOD) Yeah. What d'ya want?
3 FRANK: Like to ask you some questions. We're police officers.
4 ERNEST: Hi....Won't shake hands.....got butter all over 'em. Sit down.
5 SOUND: THEY DO.
6 ERNEST: Care for a sandwich?
7 JOE: No thanks.
8 ERNEST: Y'do...go right ahead...there's all the makin's. Bread....
9 JOE: No thanks, Mr. Lasnik.
10 ERNEST: You don't mind if I go ahead. Gotta bunch of kids comin' in at 3:30. Like to get the place cleaned up before then.
11 JOE: No, sir...go right ahead.
12 ERNEST: What d'ya wanna see me about?
13 JOE: It's about one of your employees.
14 ERNEST: Yeah? Which one?
15 JOE: Girl named HarrietShipley.
16 ERNEST: Oh yeah...I remember. She don't work here no more.
17 FRANK: You have any idea where she is?
18 ERNEST: Uh uh (NO) Ain't got the slightest. I ain't seen Nadine in about maybe....6 months.
19 FRANK: No sir...you don't understand....We're inquiring about a 20 ERNEST: Harriet Shipley.
ERNEST: Yeah... I know. Told you, I ain't seen her in 6 months.
FRANK: What's this about Nadine?
ERNEST: Her club name. Y' see, lotsa the girls don't like to use their real names. Case a fella wants to get chummy away from here, it's easier if we don't know the girl's real name. Harriet used Nadine.
JOE: I understand.
ERNEST: We got a bunch of 'em. When one of the girls leaves, we put the name back in the hat. New girl picks it. Had 14 Nadines since we opened.
JOE: Uh huh.
ERNEST: 27 Altheas.
JOE: Yes sir. Do you have any idea where the Shipley girl is?
ERNEST: Nope. Might check with her husband. He might know.
JOE: We understood he was in the army.
ERNEST: That's right. He is. Overseas. He should know where his wife is though. Ask him.
JOE: We'll probably do that sir, but we thought maybe we could turn her up ourselves. There's been a missing report filed on her.
ERNEST: Missin' huh? Who told it?
JOE: Sir?
ERNEST: Who told about her bein' missing?
FRANK: Report was filed by her mother-in-law.
ERNEST: Oh, Well, I wish I could help you fellas out. I told you, she was in here about 6 months ago. Said she came in to just say hello. Had the baby with her. I personally think she was tryin' to get a job. Course, she didn't come right out and ask, but she kinda hinted around that she'd think about comin' back.

FRANK: Uh huh.

ERNEST: Told me that she was tryin' to find some kinda work to help make ends meet.

JOE: She have any close friends here?

ERNEST: No ... not that come to mind right off. Nadine was kinda close ... y'know, she kept to herself. Good dancer. Used to be busy all the time. Hardly ever had a sit out.

FRANK: Was there one girl she seemed to talk to more than the others?

ERNEST: Nope. I told you, she wasn't close to nobody.

JOE: She ever mention any relatives to you?

ERNEST: No. I think she was all alone. I heard her talkin' to one of the girls one time about a sister. Don't remember too good. But it was about a sister.

JOE: Wonder if we could talk to the girl.

ERNEST: I dunno. She ain't here. Called her Alida. I can give you her real name if you want it. Might be able to find her. Told me she had to go back East. That's the reason she gave to quit.
JOE: We'd like her address if you can give it to us.

ERNEST: Sure.

FRANK: The last time you saw the Shipley girl, did she say anything about leaving town?

ERNEST: No. Wouldn't be surprised though.

J OE: Why do you say that?

ERNEST: Well, the poor kid was scared to death. Told me she wanted to get away.

J OE: Do you know what she was frightened about?

ERNEST: Yeah. Cliff Bender. That's what she was afraid of.

J OE: Who's he?

ERNEST: Look, I'll tell you the whole thing. Be easier that way. One favor I gotta ask though.

J OE: Yeah?

ERNEST: You won't tell Cliff I told you. He come up here, he could tear the place apart easy. He would too, if he knew I'd told on him. You gotta promise me you won't tell him.

J OE: Alright...go ahead.

ERNEST: Well, Nadine..or Harriet..she came to work for me about a year and a half ago. Came in and told me she'd has some experience in a dance place in the mid west. I don't remember the name right off. Probably come to me.

J OE: Uh huh.

ERNEST: Well, I told her I'd try her..y'know sort of a probation.

J OE: Yeah.
ERNEST: Worked out fine. End of the week, I put her on permanent. She did real well. Lotta guys got to comin' in just to dance with her. Wouldn't have nobody else. Just Nadine...Harriet.

JOE: Uh huh.

ERNEST: That's how she met Cliff. He came in one night. Fell for her and they started to go together. I told 'em I didn't like the idea of the girls goin' out with the customers. Not good business. Didn't make any difference to them though. They kept right on seein' each other.

JOE: That's this Bender fella huh?

ERNEST: Yeah. Anyway, one night this soldier come in. He was took right away with Nadine. Asked her for a dance. Kept buyin' tickets all night so's he could dance with her. Came back the next night. Same thing. All night long, he danced with Nadine. Made Cliff pretty sore, but there wasn't anything he could do about it. She wanted to be with the soldier. Wasn't too long before she told me that they was gonna get married. Well, the word got around about that and it really made Cliff hacked. Real hacked.

JOE: Yeah.

ERNEST: Him and the soldier, Shipley...they had a fight downstairs one night after we closed. Guess Cliff waited for him and Nadine to come down. Anyways, it was a real brawl. Cops 'n everything. Cliff really cleaned up on the soldier. Didn't do any good though.

FRANK: What d'ya mean?
Nadine told Cliff to stay away from her. Keep far away. Told him that her and the soldier were gonna get married and that they were through. She meant Cliff and her.

Yeah.

The soldier and Nadine got married couple of days later and she quit her job. Right after that, I heard he went over seas and Cliff was around tryin' to break things up. Didn't do no good though. Nadine loved the soldier and she planned to stay with him.

Yeah.

I tried to talk to Cliff. Tell him to stay out of it. Leave the girl alone. But it didn't do any good. He was sure hacked. Said that she was his girl, might take some time but he'd get her for runnin' out on him. I figure he told her that, too. That's what she was afraid of. Don't blame her. Cliff told me that, I'd believe him.

What's that?

That he was gonna kill her.

(END SCENE 2)
12:26 P.M. After we'd gotten the names and addresses of the employees of the Dreampalace who knew the missing girl, Frank and I went back to the office. We had the names checked through the record bureau but found that only one of the 14 people on the list had arrest records. That one was Cliff Bender, who'd been picked up on a charge of suspicion of burglary. However, according to the information on the report, he'd been released because of lack of evidence. We checked the log about the fight Lasnik had mentioned. We found that an F.I. Card had been filed but no arrest had been made. We went over to room 45 and talked with Sgt. Eggenweiler and Sgt. Roubles, the officers who'd handled the burglary case. They told us that in their contacts with Bender, he was sullen and uncooperative. They told us that he had been seen in the company of known criminals. They told us that in their opinion, the man could be considered dangerous. We checked his last known address but found that he had moved in July, leaving no forwarding address. While Frank and I checked out the rest of the missing girl's friends and acquaintances, Sgt. Graham and Cliff Bailey tried to check on Bender. We talked to everybody on the list we'd gotten from Ernest Lasnik, but none of them could give us any idea where we might find the Shipley girl. Most of them, however, told us about the threat that Bender had made against her life and expressed the opinion that he was responsible for her disappearance.
The next day, Wednesday, August 13th, Frank and I went by communications and then checked back into the office.

SOUND: SQUADROOM B.G.

FRANK: I tell you that the mother in-law called again this morning?

JOE: No.

FRANK: Wanted to know how we were doin'. What progress we been able to make.

JOE: Yeah.

FRANK: I filled her in on what we found. I didn't tell her about Bender. Just said that we thought we'd be able to find the girl.

JOE: Uh huh.

FRANK: You talked to her when she made the original report, didn't you Joe?

JOE: Yeah.

FRANK: What d'you think?

JOE: What d'ya mean?

FRANK: Isn't there something there that's a little off base to you?

JOE: I don't know what you're tryin' to get at.

FRANK: Well, it just seems to me that she doesn't care if we find her daughter-in-law or not. All she cares about is the youngster.

JOE: Yeah. I got that idea myself. Way she talked, it doesn't seem that she and the girl got along too well.

FRANK: Just seems like there's something she isn't tellin' us.
I asked her this morning if she'd heard from her son. If he knew anything about where his wife might be.

JOE: What'd she say?
FRANK: Told me she hasn't wanted to bother him, make him worry. Wouldn't even give me his mailing address. Said she didn't want him alarmed unless there was a reason.

JOE: Way I see it, his wife being gone is reason enough.

FRANK: I told her that. She said our job was just to find the girl and the baby, that's all. Cooperation like that isn't gonna make it any easier. We can only do so much if she isn't gonna help.

JOE: Doesn't make a lot of sense. Her fillin' the report and then holding out information.

FRANK: Yeah. We better get over and talk to her again. See if we can get the whole story. How 'bout Graham and Bailey? Heard from them?

FRANK: Note in the book, they got a lead on Bender. Graham said they were gonna run it down for us this morning.

JOE: Uh huh. What time you got?

FRANK: (LOOKING AT HIS WATCH) 9:43.

JOE: I wanna talk to the skipper. Make arrangements to put a picture of the Shipley girl on Suspects Wanted this afternoon. Might be able to turn something.

FRANK: Sure a lotta loose ends.

JOE: I'll get it.

SOUND: JOE WALKS TO THE PHONE AND PUNCHES THE BUTTON. HE LIFTS THE RECEIVER.
1 JOE: (INTO PHONE) Missing Persons..Friday. Yeah, Graham.
   2 Uh huh. Where? Yeah...what'd she say? Uh huh. Yeah..
   3 that's about the same. Yeah. What?...yeah. You wanna
   4 call the crime lab? Right. We'll meet you out there
   5 right away.
   6 SOUND: HE HANGS UP.
   7 JOE: They found where Bender was living.
   8 FRANK: What d'ya mean "was?"
   9 JOE: He checked out last June. About the same time the 10 Shipley girl disappeared. Landlady hasn't seen him
   11 since. Guys came up with somethin' else.
   12 FRANK: Yeah.
   13 JOE: Couple of shirts for a baby. / 50
   14 FRANK: Uh huh.
   15 JOE: Bloodstains all over 'em.

(END SCENE 3)
JOE: 10:02 A.M. we got to the apartment where Bender had been living. The crew from the crime lab were there and were photographing the room and the clothing that had been found. Sergeant Jay Allen told us that he'd have to run a precipitate test on the stains before he could tell whether or not they were of human origin. 10:45 A.M. They finished their investigation on the scene and went back to central station to compile the results.

Frank called the office and a local and an A.P.B. were put out on Cliff Bender asking that he be picked up as a possible suspect. We also had his card flagged in the record bureau. We talked to the landlady of the apartment building and she told us that Bender had left his apartment hurriedly on a night in the middle of June. She was unable to tell us the exact date but she did go on to say that she'd been getting a check for the rent each month. We asked her if she could show us either one of the checks or an envelope it had come in. She explained that she had thrown the envelopes away and cashed the checks. She was unable to tell us where the checks had been mailed from. She said that as far as she knew, she'd never seen the Shipley girl in Bender's apartment. We asked her to notify us immediately in the event that the suspect returned. We put in a call to the bank where the rent checks were cashed and asked that they be checked for us. (MORE)
1 JOE: [1:30 P.M.] Frank and I went over to the crime lab and talked to Jay Allen. He told us that the stains on the baby clothes were human blood. He showed us the photographs taken but there was nothing in them that would give us a lead either to the girl's or Bender's whereabouts. That afternoon, the picture of Harriet Shipley was telecast over the police program. We got several calls from citizens who said they'd seen the girl. We checked them all out. One of the callers, a bus driver told us that he'd seen the girl and the baby on his bus during the month of June, and that she'd gotten off in San Diego. We alerted the police in that city to look for her. Thursday morning, Frank and I checked into the office.

15 SOUND: SQUADROOM B.G.
16 JOE: Wanna check the book? See if there's anything from San Diego?
17 FRANK: Right.
19 SOUND: FRANK WALKS OFF MIKE. THE PHONE RINGS. JOE PUNCHES THE BUTTON AND PICKS UP THE PHONE.
21 JOE: [INTO PHONE] Missing Person's...Friday. Yes that's right. Yes we did. Uh huh. Where? You're sure?
23 Uh huh. Right away.
24 SOUND: PHONE HANG UP.
25 JOE: Get your coat.
26 FRANK: What've you got?
27 JOE: The Shipley girl...they've found her.

Sure. What d'ya want to know? Don't make no difference now. You can go back and tell her that it's too late. Way too late.

Tell who?

Mrs. Shipley. Harriet's mother-in-law. You go back and tell her that she done it good. They ain't nothin' left to do to Harriet. It's all been done. You tell her that.

We don't work for Mrs. Shipley. We're trying to find out what happened to your sister, and the baby.

Who asked you to find out in the first place? It was her wasn't it? Wasn't she the one?

She filed the report.

That's what I mean. Well, you go back and tell her that there's nothin' more she can do to Harriet or the baby or to big Jerry. Nothin' at all she can do.

(SHE STARTS TO CRY)

Where is the baby?

He's not here.

You know where he is?

Yes, but I ain't gonna tell you. I'm not gonna tell anybody. I promised Harriet I wouldn't tell and I'm gonna keep the promise.

Look, Mrs. Levin, we don't want to hurt your sister.
We're just trying to get the truth. Maybe you better tell us what you know.

You ain't doin' this for old Mrs. Shipley.

No ma'am.
PAULINE: All right then. I'll tell you, but not for her. I wouldn't give her the time of day. She's the one who did it. The whole thing. You can lay it right at her feet.

JOE: You wanna tell us?

PAULINE: Since they got married she's been givin' the kids trouble. Right from the first she heard about it. Said that Harriet wasn't good enough for her son. Said Harriet was cheap. But it didn't make any difference to the kids. They got married anyway. They were in love so they got married.

JOE: Uh huh.

PAULINE: Soon's big Jerry went overseas. She started on Harriet to get an annulment. All the time writin' her letters tellin' her how cheap she was and that if she really loved Jerry, she'd get an annulment. Then she found out about the baby so she started sayin' how they should get a divorce.

JOE: Does Harriet's husband know about this?

PAULINE: Sure he did. Knew it all along. He didn't like it. Told his mother to stay out of their lives. Kept tellin' her but it didn't do no good. None. Then Harriet got the wire. The one where it told that big Jerry was dead. Almost killed her. I thought it was going to. They were really in love. Isn't often you see something like them two. Real love -- the kind you live, not the kind y'talk about.

JOE: Uh huh.
1 PAULINE: One night right after she got the wire, she got a phone
2 call from San Francisco. From old Mrs. Shipley. She told
3 Harriet that she was going to court to take the baby away
4 from her. Said that she could prove that Harriet wasn't
5 a good mother and that she didn't deserve to have the baby.
6 JOE: Was Harriet living here at the time?
7 PAULINE: No. She'd come down every week-end but she wasn't livin'
8 here. There was a guy up in L.A. that was givin' her 9 trouble. Fella named Bender, I think. He was with her 10 when she tried to kill herself. He ran out so he wouldn't 11 get mixed up in it. He was always givin' Harriet trouble
12 so she left one night to get away from him and from old 13 Mrs. Shipley. She came here and said that she just 14 wanted to be left alone with her baby. That's not a lot 15 to ask is it? Is it? Just to be left alone?
16 JOE: No, ma'am.
PAULINE: It was for old Mrs. Shipley. She just wouldn't let Harriet alone. Kept after her sayin' how she was gonna take the baby away. How Harriet was an unfit mother.
That's why she came down here. To try and hide. Get away from the old woman. Didn't do any good. She maybe got away from her but she kept thinking that any day the doorbell was gonna ring and there'd be the old bag with the papers to take the baby away from her. Got on her mind. Finally wasn't much else she was thinkin' about but how to keep her baby. She went out walkin' one night.
Took the baby with her. Rained. Rained hard. I guess the baby took cold, anyway, next day he came down with a bad fever. Couple days later he was dead. Not even a year old and he was dead. (SHE CRIES)

JOE: You want to go on?
PAULINE: Harriet sat around for a week. Didn't say anything.

Didn't do nothin' but just stare at the wall. Didn't even cry. Just sat and looked at the wall. Then all of a sudden she just fell apart. Wasn't anything that could hold her. She said she was going up to San Francisco and see her mother-in-law. I called the doctor. He said it was a breakdown and said I should have her committed. I signed the papers and that's where she is. I went up to see her. She don't even know me, and I'm her sister.

She don't even know me. (Crys) So you just tell old Mrs.

Shipley how she did good. You just tell her what she did, to my sister. Tell her how the baby's dead and she finally got what she wanted cause now Harriet hasn't got

(SHE BREAKS DOWN AND SOBS)

BEAT

JOE: C'mon, Frank.

FRANK: Yeah.

SOUND: THEY WALK TO THE DOOR AND OPEN IT. WE CAN STILL HEAR

PAULINE IN THE BACKGROUND SOBBING. THE DOOR CLOSES AND

SHUTS OFF THE SOUND.

FRANK: Where to?

JOE: Better get back to town.

FRANK: Guess so.

JOE: So we can tell Mrs. Shipley.

(END SCENE 5)
During the drive back to Los Angeles, Frank and I hardly spoke to each other. We were both occupied with the thoughts that were going through our minds. We got back in town at 9:30 P.M. and went directly to the hotel where Mrs. Shipley was staying. The desk clerk told us that she'd left word that she wasn't to be disturbed, but we told him that it was a matter of importance. He called the room and she asked that we come right up. We took the elevator to the 7th floor and walked down the hall.

SOUND: STEPS ON CARPET, HOLD AND THEN STOP

I'll get it.

SOUND: JOE KNOCKS ON THE DOOR, BEAT AND THEN THE DOOR OPENS

Good evening Sergeant Friday...Officer Smith. Come in.

SOUND: THEY WALK INTO THE ROOM THE DOOR CLOSES BEHIND THEM.

I was just having a drink. May I fix you one?

No thanks.

How about you, Mr. Smith?

No.

You don't mind if I go ahead?

Not at all.

Just sit down. I'll be right with you.

ICE IN GLASS...BOOZE AND SODA.

The desk clerk said it was important.

Yes, ma'am.
1 GLADYS: Have you found my daughter-in-law?
2 JOE: Yes, ma'am.
3 GLADYS: And the baby...where's he? Is he still with her?
4 JOE: No, ma'am, he's not.
5 GLADYS: Where is he?
6 JOE: Your daughter-in-law's pretty sick, Mrs. Shipley.
7 GLADYS: Oh?
8 JOE: Yes, ma'am. She's in the State Hospital at Camarillo.
9 GLADYS: Camarillo?
10 JOE: Yes, ma'am.
11 GLADYS: That's a mental hospital isn't it?
12 JOE: That's right.
13 GLADYS: I'm sorry to hear about Harriet. But I knew she wasn't 14 very stable.
15 FRANK: Why didn't you tell us your son was dead, Mrs. Shipley?
16 BEAT
17 GLADYS: I didn't think it had any bearing on the thing. What 18 difference does it make?
19 JOE: You don't seem to be very interested in his wife?
20 BEAT
GLADYS: I'm going to be honest with you Sergeant, I'm not. Not in the least interested, in what she does or where she is. I never did feel that she was the right girl for my son. Never. When the baby was born, I tried to go along with it. Tried to be nice to her and she wouldn't have it. She wouldn't even be friendly. She poisoned my son. Turned him against me. She's a terrible woman. Just terrible and whatever's happened to her is just exactly what she's got coming. Naturally I'm sorry it's the way it is, but there's nothing I can do. All I'm interested in right now is my grandchild. I want him. And if I have to go to court to get him then I'll do it that way.

JOE: That won't be necessary.

GLADYS: Where is he? I'd like to go and get him now that Jerry's wife can't take care of him.

BEAT: He's dead.

GLADYS: If this is some kind of a joke that you're making up to help my daughter-in-law keep him it won't work.

JOE: It's no joke. It's the truth. He died in a hospital in San Diego.
1 GLADYS: (BEGINNING TO BREAK) It's not right. He was only a baby. It's not right that he's dead. It's not fair. I wanted to have him... Take care of him... Give him the things he should have and it's not right that he's taken away from me. It's not right. She did this. Harriet. She did it to get even with me. I know she did.

7 JOE: We're sorry, Mrs. Shipley.

8 GLADYS: (NOT HEARING) First my husband, then Jerry... now the baby. I haven't got anybody. I'm all by myself. There isn't anybody in the world who cares. Nobody.

11 JOE: We're sorry Mrs. Shipley. I wish there was something we could do.

13 GLADYS: No you're not. You're like the rest of 'em. All I wanted was my grandson. That's all. Just my grandson. Now I haven't got anybody. (SHE SOBS) It's Harriet. She's the one. Look what she did to me... Look what she did.

18 SOUND: THEY TURN AND LEAVE THE ROOM. DOOR OPEN AND CLOSE
