

Voice; Barton, I guess you're the man we want.

Barton; What?

Voice; The Hartman girl was found, shot thru the heart. The body was in her own car, which was parked in back of your home in Millvale.

Barton; (YELLS) NO NO!

Burke; Her car was found early this mornin' by the State Police Barton; It's not true. It's a lie. She was shot in her own home ...someone moved the body.

Britt; (SMOOTHLY) But Barton, the police found five thousand in cash and the murder gun in your garage -

Barton; That was moved too! (BLURTING) The cash and gun were in the girl's home.

Britt; (CUT IN SHARPLY) How do you know?

Barton; I - I - why - -

Britt; You gave yourself away, Barton!

Barton; No No - wait, listen to me-

Britt; The body, the cash and the gun were found at your place. By your own testimony, you were at the scene at the time of the murder.

Barton; (STAMMERING) B-b-but I - I -

Britt; (HARD) Judge told about you - how you forged her writing to juggle account books. You tried to frame her, then you killed her so she couldn't expose you. The police have the motive, the money, the corpse- - and you HAVE NO ALIBI.

Barton: (WHIMPERING) I - I didn't mean- -

Tierney: (SHARP: Barton! Did you kill Madge Hartman?

Barton; (LICKED) I - I did it.

Britt; I've finished reading your Barton story, Miss Case.
It's well done.

Case; (SIGHS) Poor Madge. () At least her murderer will pay in full.

Britt; Barton certainly broke down all the way.

Case; He was trapped no matter what he said. He told everything at police headquarters. He told how he had rigged a gun to kill Madge when she went home,
..how he established an alibi in Millvale, then came back to set the suicide scene. And Mr. Reid, he'd have gotten away with it, if someone hadn't moved the body - and Madge's car to Millvale.

Britt; Axford mentioned the Green Hornet.

Case; I guess he had a hand in it.

Britt; If the police find him, they'll probably jail him for tampering with evidence-

Case; I've been thinking a lot about the Hornet. I - (SIGHS) Well I'd sure like to know that guy. I think he's all right.
