

Votes

The Green Hornet

by Lee Randon

GRAFT WILL OUT

Number ~~11.839~~

Date ~~Oct 1, 1947~~

Britt Reid, Kato, Axford, Gunnigan, Miss Case
 Frank Rollins....political boss; crook
 Paul Benning.....contractor, crook
 Stanos.....restaurateur..accent
 Burke.....cop
 Mike.....crook, bit
 Tony.....crook
~~Miss~~.....
 Voices.....3 one line bits
 Clerk

Police Hugs

The Green Hornet
by Lee Randon

Number _____

Date _____

GRAFT WILL OUT

(USUAL OPENING)

Annrcr: Although it was just beyond the downtown district, the 600 block on west 4th street was generally deserted after eight in the evening. Its shabby stores and one dimly lit restaurant offered no inducement for window shoppers or those out for an evening's fun. The two hard faced men loitering outside the restaurant knew this, and had made their plans accordingly.

Tony: The street's clear now, Mike. Let's go.

Mike: Right.

(A FEW STEPS ON SIDEWALK..DOOR OPEN AND CLOSE)

Stanos: (FADE IN) Good evening, gentlemen.

Tony: You the boss of this joint ?

Stanos: Me, I'm Stanos. What can I do for you ?

Tony: Just one thing, pal. Pack your stuff and move. Get out of the neighborhood.

Stanos: I do not understand. The Restaurant, she is my home. Why should I move ?

Tony: Because I'm tellin you to, see ?

Stanos: You tell me...Oh, maybe you play joke on Stanos, eh ?

(SOCK, MOAN FROM STANOS)

Tony: That's to show you I'm not jokin!