MAGIC TRICKS

THE MAGIC SUGAR CUBE

Have somebody mark his initials on a cube of sugar with a soft black lead pencil. Then drop the cube in a glass of water. Take his hand and hold it over the glass. When the cube has dissolved the mark will be on his hand!

HOW TO DO THE TRICK:

While he is marking the sugar, wet your thumb. When you drop the cube in the glass, press your wet thumb on the mark. It'll come off on your thumb. While you hold his hand over the glass, press your thumb on his hand and the mark will come off on it.

A Product of General Foods

MIX TRICKS

Here's a slick trick to make chocolate milk like magic — and make it disappear even faster! Just use new Baker's 4 in 1. Instantly new Baker's 4 in 1 makes luscious, more chocolate-y chocolate milk that tastes so extra-special good it'll be down the hatch in a flash! Tell Mom it's the fun way to drink milk and ask her to get you the large 1-lb. economy size of new Baker's 4 in 1 Instant Cocoa Mix.

Everything CHOCOLATE tastes best when it's BAKER'S!

GLEAMS AS IT CLEANS—CLEANS AS IT GLEAMS!

"Tenderly"—a neat description of the way Sarah Vaughan handles a ballad and the title of a grand MGM new album by that great vocal artist! Included are eight top-drawer ballads: the memorable tune which lends its title to the set, and "Don't Blame Me", "I'm Through With Love", "Once in a While", "I Cover the Waterfront", "The Man I Love", "Don't Worry 'Bout Me", and "If You Could See Me Now". "The Divine Sarah," as many of her faithful fans might say, is in fine voice, molding each lyric perfectly and setting forth each melody—well, tenderly. And there is excellent backing from orchestras conducted by Teddy Wilson, George Treadwell, and Ted Dameron. The first important vocal album of 1953!

That wonderful musical aggregation, Woody Herman's Third Herd, has been captured in all its glory in the eight sides of a new MGM album set entitled (appropriately enough) "Woody Herman (and the Third Herd)." Woody has had many a fine band in his career—each tops in its own way or ways. Each has a warm spot in our memory. But, the "Third Herd" remains our favorite—probably because it's nearest to us in point of time. This polished, endlessly inventive crew is terrifically showcased in the solidly-arranged line-up of standard tunes recorded here. There are "favorites" old and newer—items like "Love is Here to Stay", "I Would Do Anything For You", "East of the Sun", "This is New" (Kurt Weill—remember?), "I Can't Believe That You're in Love With Me", "Almost Like Being in Love", "Nice Work If You Can Get It", and "In A Little Spanish Town". Modern orchestral jazz at its best.

The ever-smooth, ever-cool, ever-welcome George Shearing Quintet brings its magic blend to two old favorites on its latest MGM release. Top-deck holds that evergreen Gordon and Revel oldie: "There's A Lull In My Life". A prize Quintet package decorated with some neat Shearing solos. On the flip, there's more that's good to hear as Teddi King, George's vocal find, joins the fivesome in "Midnight Belongs To You".

The witty monologs of Will Rogers, his inimitable Oklahoma drawl, his ingratiating chuckle—and his bad grammar—are all heard again in Columbia's new audible memento of that homespun humorist, "Will Rogers Says." A collection of choice excerpts from Rogers' radio broadcasts which were widely listened to and quoted from the recording also includes commentary by Will's eldest son, publisher and former congressman Will Rogers Jr., who recently starred in a film version of his father's life story.

Written and spoken during the late Twenties and early Thirties, these Rogers sayings cover a wide variety of subjects, from politicians to pilgrims and Indians, from tax plans to making movies, from Greta Garbo to Mother's Day. Poking fun at politics and its practitioners was a favorite Rogers pastime, with the Senate, according to his son, a "particular hobby." "I'm always agin' the party that's up," was Rogers' credo.

As amusing as his political witticisms are the Rogers comments on radio announcing, show business, and his travels abroad, all generously sampled in Columbia's new recording of "Will Rogers Says."

"An old cowhand that had a little luck" was Rogers' description of himself. A man with little or no formal education ("studied McGuffey's Fourth Reader for ten years") he became an enormously popular stage and film actor, newspaper columnist, radio commentator and general ambassador of good will. His native state of Oklahoma even nominated him for President in 1932.

A new and most interesting record from RCA-VICTOR is the James Fleming waxing of "Mr. President—From FDR to Eisenhower."

Recorded in this album are the headlines of twenty years of politics with the chief players talking at the tops of their voices.

"Mr. President" was prepared within the limits of time and space that a single album demands. James Fleming, as editor had a most difficult task in selecting from the millions of recorded words spoken by these famous men the ones that would be the most interesting and dramatic. He succeeded in his task. Here we have an echo of history that you'll want to hear over and over again.

Jane Froman's new Capitol Album "Yours Alone" boosts her popularity even higher. The Album contains many of her songs that are favorites with her movie, nightclub, and television audiences. They are "What Is There to Say", "Be Still My Heart", "More Than You Know", "There's a Lull in My Life", "Hands Across the Table", "Soon", "How About You", and "A Little Kiss Each Morning".

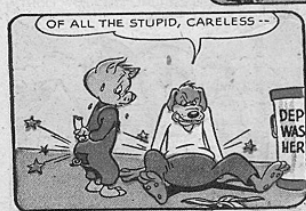

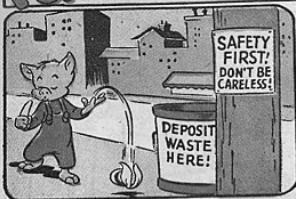

Miss Froman's first album for Capitol Records "With a Song in My Heart" is still on the nation's best seller list. Album was taken from her motion picture biography "With a Song in My Heart".

In addition to her stage, nightclub and USO appearances, Miss Froman appears weekly as the star of the CBS-TV network series "U.S.A. Canteen."

Jane Froman's hit single records are "I'll Walk Alone" and "With a Song in My Heart"; "Wish You Were Here" and "Mine"; "Can't Get Out of This Mood" and "Cling to Me"; "Stay Where You Are" and "Laughing"; "No" and "My Love, My Life". These are all on the Capitol label.
