INSIDE HOLLYWOOD

Shirley Jones' scintillating performance as the nice, old-fashioned girl in "The Music Man" proves an actress doesn't have to play a sinning female to give a portrayal of Oscar stature. . . . Anthony Quinn goes from "Lawrence of Arabia" into "Houlihan's Jest," to be filmed in Ireland with Quinn as a legendary Irish patriot. . . . Bob Hope is so happy to be working close to home—only three minutes away—at Warner Bros. for "Critic's Choice" that, he says, "if the studio had only known it they could have had me for half the price."

"Merrill's Marauders," Warners' war drama starring Jeff Chandler, is scheduled for release early in July. . . . Sophia Loren is being treated like a national heroine in Italy since she won an Oscar for "Two Women". . . . Cubby Broccoli will produce a picture for United Artists titled "From Russia, With Love," about a British Secret agent. . . .

Natalie Wood, who weighs only 100, surprisingly has a voice that "belts" out a song, as she demonstrates in "Gypsy". . . . Brandon de Wilde will play Paul Newman's nephew in Paramount's "Wildest of the Thousand". . . . Robert Preston enacts a high pressure promoter again in Warners' comedy, "Not On Your Life," as he does in "The Music Man". . . . Richard Burton won't have to leave Rome after "Cleopatra" because his next picture, "Fear Is the Chain," will also be made there.

Jack Lemmon won't even have time for a "hangover" after his alcoholic role in "Days of Wine and Roses" because he's got four pictures waiting for him. . . . Dorothy Provine will guest star on the London TV show, "Sunday Night at the Palladium," before reporting to Stanley Kramer for "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World". . . .

Now that Oscar awards are settled the biggest question of movie followers is Who will play Eliza Doolittle? although Warners doesn't even have a screenplay ready of "My Fair Lady". . . . Joan Crawford tells in her autobiography, "A Portrait of Joan," how she scrubbed floors in a Kansas City school at nine—and this from the actress who always put on Hollywood's most glamorous front.

Cliff Robertson reports to Warner Bros. late in May to begin the role of Lieut. John F. Kennedy in "PT 109."

The motion picture will be filmed on a large scale in keeping with the historic setting of President Kennedy's wartime adventures. It will include a full-scale reenactment of Pacific sea battles, highlighted by the ramming of Kennedy's motor torpedo boat by a Japanese destroyer.

The decision to star Robertson was made after literally hundreds of candidates had been submitted for the role. The casting was one of Hollywood's most important in many pictures.

Lewis Milestone has been signed to direct "PT 109." Construction of sets has already begun on Munson Island, near Key West, and Miami boat yards are preparing the fleet of PT boats.

Jack L. Warner, president of Warner Bros. Pictures, will personally supervise production of the film and Brian Foy will be producer. Basis for the screen story is Robert Donovan's book, "PT 109." The picture will be photographed in Panavision and Technicolor.
