INSIDE HOLLYWOOD

The spotlight has been on Cliff Robertson in "PT 109" because he plays JFK, but when the Warner picture comes out Ty Hardin and James Gregory, also enacting real persons, will share in the glory. . . .

That love affair of Spartaco Santony and Teresa Velasquez while filming the romantic leads in Warners' "The Castilian" was not a publicity dreamup—they got married before the picture was completed. . . . Academy members are getting goggle-eyed trying to see all the pictures which have been nominated for Oscars this year. . . . Between the Greek actors appearing in "America America" and the host of Greeks in "Island of Love" roles, Warner's payroll department is going crazy trying to spell names right on salary checks. . . . Fred Astaire announced he's going to give up TV after the current season to devote full time to motion pictures.

Henry Mancini, who won an Oscar last year for his song "Moon River", may repeat this year because of his theme song from "Days of Wine and Roses"

. . . Peter O'Toole, star of "Lawrence of Arabia", will do the Joseph Conrad story, "Lord Jim". . . . Ty Hardin fell in love with horse racing while working in "Wall of Noise" and is beginning to assemble his own stable.

Cast of "Youngblood Hawke", topped by Warren Beatty and Suzanne Pleshette, will have 29 principal roles, more than any Warner picture since "Giant". . . . Brigitte Bardot can't make up her mind about paying a visit to the United States for the first time when her latest picture, "Warrior's Rest" opens in the spring. . . . Debbie Reynolds is due at Warners next week from Las Vegas to begin her "Mary, Mary" role. . . . Bette Davis' situation—wanted ad, plus "What Ever Happened to Baby Jane?" has brought her more jobs than she can handle for the next three years. . . . Dean Smith, former University of Texas sprinter who placed third in the 1952 Olympic Games' 100 meter race, is now a Hollywood actor. His most recent role was a featured part in Warner Bros.' "PT 109", story of Lieut. John F. Kennedy.
