INSIDE HOLLYWOOD

Comedian Don Knotts, a famed scene stealer, has to compete for laughs with a fish in "The Incredible Mr. Limpet." . . . Just about every one of the Dodger heroes has some kind of show business deal now as a result of the world series victory. . . . Stathis Giallelis, Greek star of Warners' "America America," is wild about cheeseburgers and is using his first dollar savings to finance an American style burger drive-in just outside Athens. . . . Cary Grant was named Star of the Year by the Theatre Owners of America.

The out-sized Edwardian hats which Cecil Beaton designed for the ladies in the Ascot Races sequence for "My Fair Lady" at Warner Bros. are causing no end of unusual woes.

For example, the hats, some of which extend four feet from port to starboard, must be firmly fixed in place in an operation of delicate balancing. This means the use of many wardrobe women who know something about engineering as well as millinery.

But what's worse, it is extremely difficult if not impossible for the hatted women to use the studio powder rooms because their hats are too big.

"My Fair Lady," produced by Jack L. Warner and directed by George Cukor, stars Audrey Hepburn and Rex Harrison. . . . Director Norman Taurog ordered an exterior location set at Palm Springs cleared of spectators to expedite filming on a Warner Bros.' "Palm Springs Weekend" sequence with Troy Donahue and Connie Stevens.

"Except for those two gentlemen," he said, pointing at two Indians wearing levis. "They own this land we're standing on." . . . Sammy Cahn and James Van Heusen have been signed by producer Gene Kelly to write the songs for "Robin and the 7 Hoods," to star Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr. and Bing Crosby. The big budget comedy musical for Warner Bros. is a story about Chicago in 1929.

Anita Ekberg is just one of the boys—if you can imagine it—around some of Italy's top auto racing drivers.

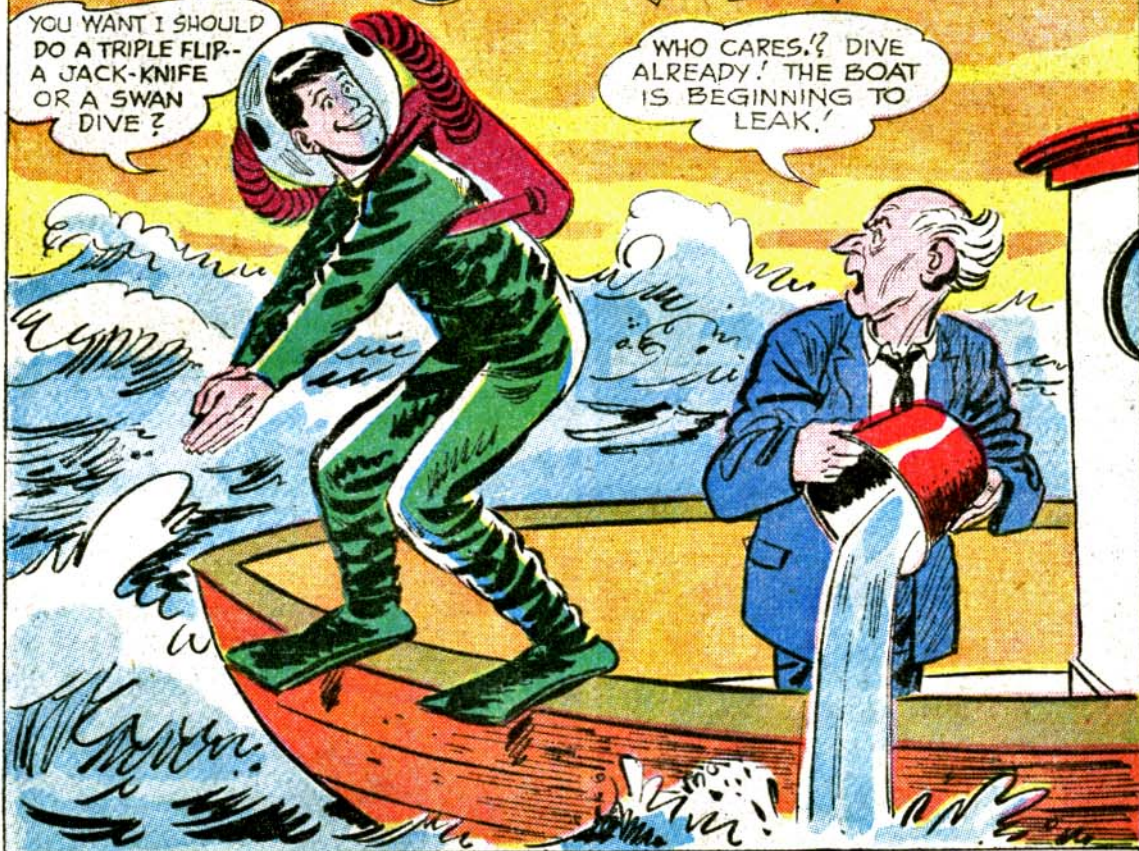

The beautiful, shapely actress, currently starring in Warner Bros.' "4 For Texas," is one of the few women around who can handle a big, professional racing machine capable of 170-mile-an-hour speeds. She has competed in several European road races and plans to enter more with her new speedster, a specially-built 5-litre Ferrari. . . . Cecil Beaton, production designer on Warner Bros.' "My Fair Lady," and his staff of 93 seamstresses, drapers and milliners made a total of 1,086 costumes for Audrey Hepburn, Rex Harrison and other players in the film. Cost of costumes was $500,000.
