WIN

this 1970 Cessna 150 private plane and flying lessons, or EMPI "Imp" dune buggy, or Starcraft 15-foot power boat.

We're giving away all three in Revell's "Pick-Your-Own-Prize" Sweepstakes!

These aren't Revell models, gang—they're the real thing. Which go-go machine looks groovy to you?

Think about it, then write "Cessna 150" or "EMPI Imp dune buggy" or "Starcraft 15' power boat" on an official Revell entry blank. Or on the back of an end panel (or reasonable facsimile) from any Revell kit. Your name automatically goes into the special drawing for that particular prize. "Pick-Your-Own-Prize" Sweepstakes is actually three great sweeps in one.

1,059 other wild prizes, including Yamahas and space suits. Four lucky guys will win high-powered Yamaha 100cc motorcycles. Wild. And five of you will get real astronaut space suits worn by stars of "Marooned," the exciting new Frankovich-Sturges film production for Columbia. Wow. Five hundred of you will win six-packs of Revell kits and 300 will divvy up Apollo space kits. And 250 will get two reserved-seat tickets to "Marooned."

Really easy to enter. Just send us your name, address and first-prize selection (plane, boat or dune buggy) on the back of an end panel from any Revell kit; or make a copy of the panel on a 3-by-5-inch piece of paper, printing the word "Revell" in block letters. Or go to your Revell dealer—he has a free, official entry blank for you. New Revell kits have them, too. You can even send us your name and address on a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and we'll send you an entry blank. If your blank has a secret message on it, you become an Instant Winner of a special mystery prize—and you're still eligible to win any of the other prizes, including one of the top three.

Enter our "Pick-Your-Own-Prize" Sweepstakes now and enter often. Your chances of winning get better each time.

Contest closes May 30, 1970. Winners will be selected after August 1, 1970. All entries become the property of Revell, Inc., and none can be acknowledged or returned. No purchase necessary to participate. Judges' decision final. Sweepstakes subject to local, state and federal laws and void wherever prohibited. Tax liability is responsibility of winners. No substitute prizes will be given nor will cash equivalents be paid. In accepting awards, winners grant Revell the right to publicize and promote their winning of awards. Revell employees, employees of Revell distributors, dealers or their immediate families are ineligible.

- ★ Would you like a hot new car for your Aurora Model Motoring set?
- ★ Or a new fun car?
- ★ It doesn't matter. Aurora has both kinds.
- ★ See them at your Model Motoring store.
- ★ And drive the most talked about cars in years.
- ★ For new Model Motoring enjoyment.

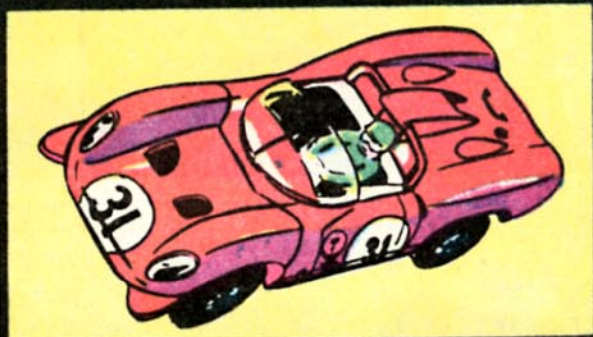

★ Chaparral 2F.

Leader at LeMans, Nurenberg-ring, and Targa Florio. The stunning white Chaparral 2F led the American invasion of European race tracks last year. Best known for "bringing the wing to Europe." It tops the list of most-wanted Model Motoring cars.

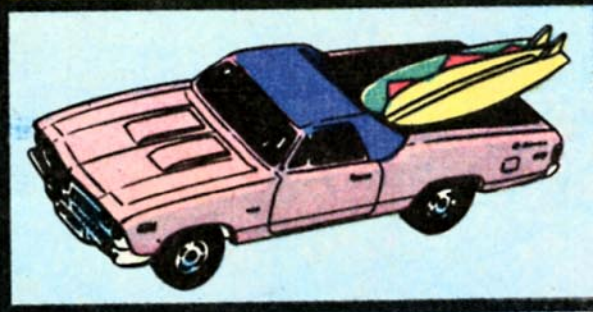

★ Alfa Romeo 33.

This stylish speedster took on the world at Sebring. And led the pack through the first laps with only a two-litre V-8. Its different rear-deck air scoop and super-sleek lines make it easy to spot. In blood red, it's an exciting addition to every Model Motoring collection.

★ El Camino.

It's the groovy new favorite of California's beach set. Over half the surfers have made the switch already. And Aurora's right with them. Why not be, too?

A LETTER FROM JERRY

B-510

Hi Fans!

Since Wonder Woman whisked Renfrew and me off to her Paradise Island in this issue, I thought it might be interesting to tell you some of our experiences in other strange places. For instance, I thought the kid might get some culture before we went abroad, so I took him to see a performance of a famous ballet company when it appeared here in Hollywood. While the girls were doing their opening number, the little numbskull nudged me in the ribs, pointed to them dancing on their toes and asked: "Why didn't they just hire taller girls?"

Take a lame-brain like him to Europe?

When the teacher asked him what was the Matterhorn, he's the kid who answered, "The Matterhorn is a big horn to be blown when something is the matter!"

And talk about lazy! He dawdles anytime I ask him to do anything. One day, I was so exasperated, I yelled, "Renfrew, is there anything you can do fast?"

He looked at me with those big, brown, button eyes of his, and replied, "Sure, Unc. I get tired fast!"

That boy has a way of putting people down, especially me. I complained that he never paid any attention to me. "Anytime you feel as if you're being ignored," he snapped back with his sickly, toothy smile, "just think of Whistler's father!"

You know, at one point I thought he'd grow up to be a doctor—he was already saving old magazines!

One of the fellers at the studio, by the way, told me, virus is a Latin word doctors use that means "Your guess is as good as mine."

But I don't think he'll even ever make it out of grade school. The other day, for instance, when he came home, and I asked him if he'd behaved himself, know what he said? "How much trouble can I get into standing in the corner all morning?"

And his report card! I almost had a fit when I saw his grades. "Aw, c'mon, whattaya expect?" he said. "We were studying all new stuff this term!"

I never saw such low marks. "There's one good thing I can say about them," I said. "At least, it proves you weren't cheating!"

Out here in Hollywood, where he goes to school with all the kids of movie producers, they don't mark the report cards Poor, Fair, Good, and Excellent—but Magnificent, Colossal, Stupendous, and Sensational!

Renfrew always had a ready answer for everything. When the teacher told the class that Atilla the Hun invaded Europe, killing many people, Renfrew shot up his hand to ask, "What kind of a car did he drive?"

Finally, the principal called me to his office and shoved a sheet of paper in front of me. I recognized Renfrew's scrawl. "This was very generous of Renfrew," he snarled at me, "but will you tell him I don't think his resignation would help our crowded school situation!"

As I started out to tell you, we finally got under way. On the train going cross-country, the conductor told me he was too old to ride half-fare, and demanded a full ticket. "I'm only six years old!" Renfrew lied.

"Are you kidding me? You look at least 10 or 11!"

"Can I help it if I worry?" said Renfrew innocently.

Everything went smooth until we got to Italy and checked into a hotel. While I was signing the guest book, a bedbug crawled across the page. I threw my pen down in disgust. "I'm not surprised they're in the hotel," I said, angrily, "but when they watch which room I'm in, that's too much!"

The clerk apologized and guaranteed everything would be all right, then gave me a handful of registration papers to sign. "It is for our local police, who require you to fill them out, according to all our laws and regulations," he said.

I shoved them back at him. "I'm tired of answering questionnaires since I got here. Here! You fill 'em out! My name's on all the luggage!"

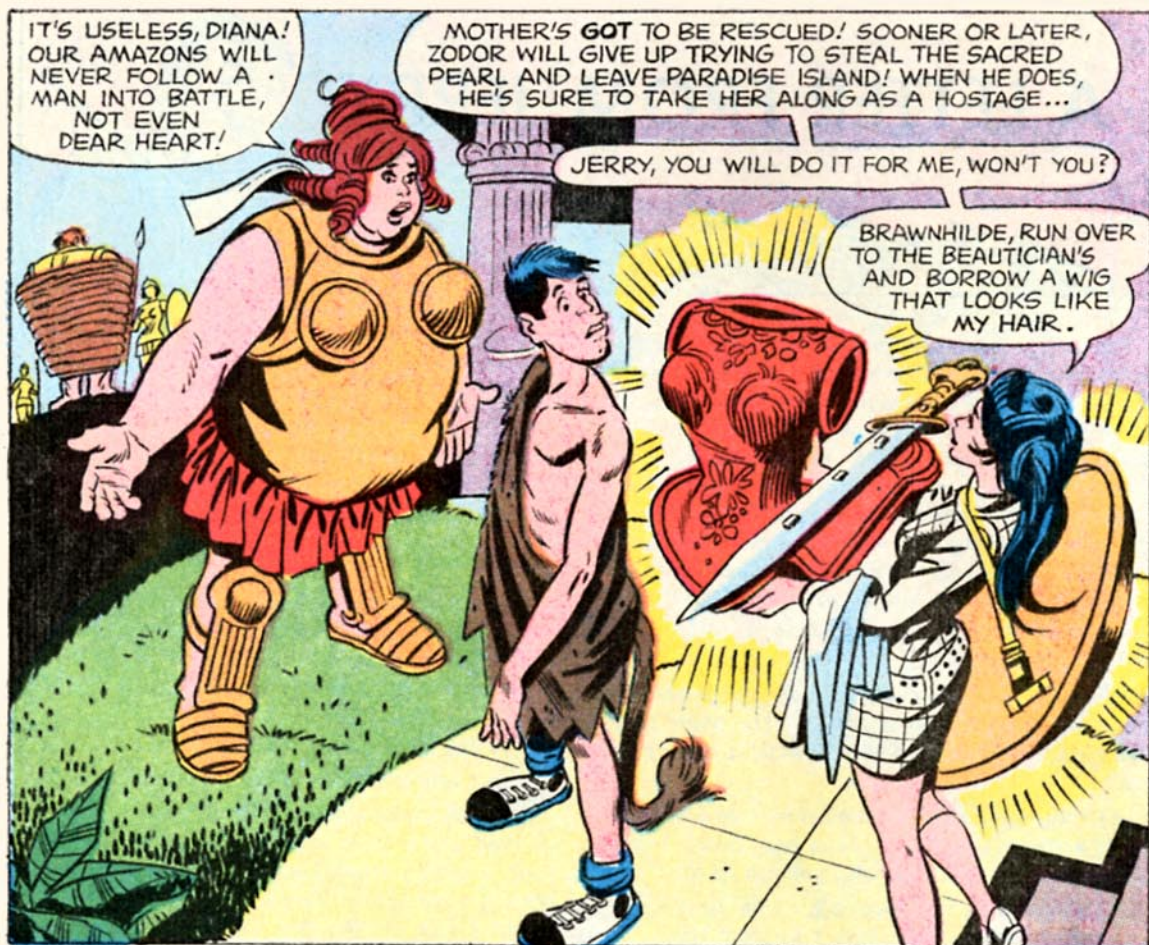

Renfrew and I went upstairs to wash and change. When we came downstairs to the lobby, the beaming clerk handed me the forms he'd filled out. Where it said: Name, he'd written in "Signor Guaranteed Genuine Leather!"

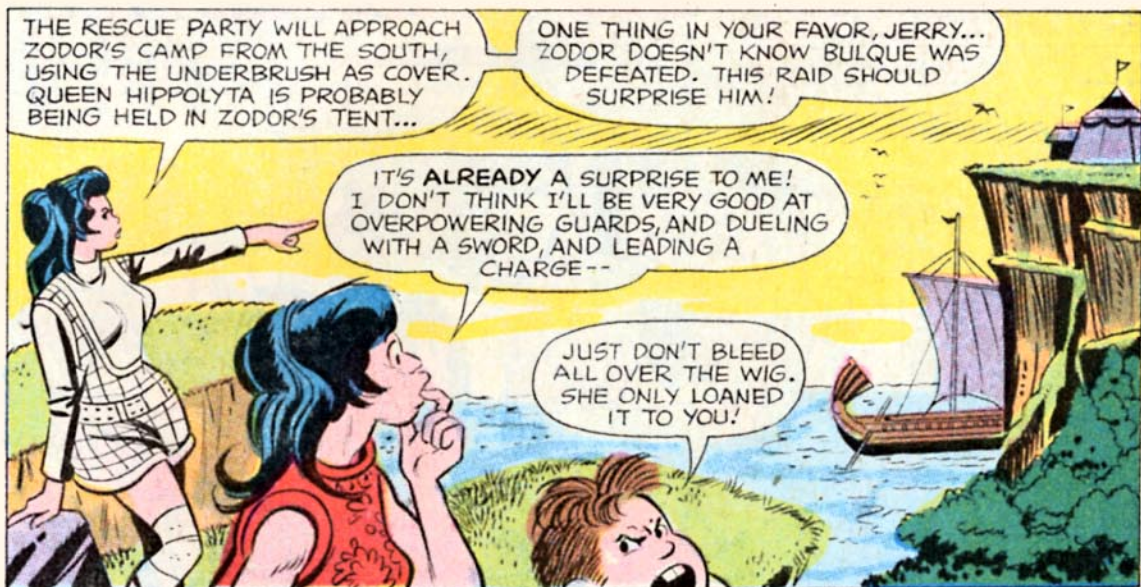

A man, sitting in a chair, called me over. "Ah, it's good to see a fellow-American," he said, putting out his hand for me to shake. "Excuse me for not getting up. I'm ailing from arthritis."

"That's okay," snapped Renfrew, jerking his thumb towards me. "This is Lewis from Hollywood!"

What a doll he is! When he was very young, I had a tough time getting him to walk and talk. Now it's tougher getting him to sit down and shut up!
