Big, fast cars need big, fat tires.

POWERSLICKS®

Powerslicks. Cars so big and fast, we had to find ways to control them.

So we bolted on mag wheels and racing slicks. Big, fat racing slicks for better control. Less fish-tailing. Fewer spin-outs.

We built a special powertrack system so you can put the power where you need it most. And save your batteries for the tight spots.

Powerslicks. Big, freewheeling machines that coast till they hit the powertrack. Then you hit the control button, and Powerslicks go like crazy.

And that's what it's all about. Racing slicks, powertrack.

Powerslicks.

Cars so fast, we had to find ways to control them.

TSK-TSK-TSK!
I'M THE ONLY ONE ON THE PLANE WHO AIN'T KNOCKED OUT!

HEY, MAYBE I CAN
LAND ON THAT AIRSTRIP
DOWN THERE. IF ONLY THOSE CARS GET OUTTA THE WAY!

LOOK AT THAT PLANE!
THAT NUT'S NOT GONNA
TRY TO LAND ON THE HIGHWAY??

OF COURSE NOT!
NOBODY COULD BE THAT STUPID!

NOW, LET ME SEE... WHERE'S
THE BUTTON THAT LETS DOWN
THE LANDING WHEELS?

SKRUNNCH

HERE'S MY QUARTER!
HEY, ANYBODY GONNA TAKE MY QUARTER?

SCREEEE

My experiences as "The Kook in the Cockpit" remind me of several things other comedians have said about flying. For instance, Milton Berle once cracked, "I just flew in from New York, and my arms are tired!"

Henny Youngman used to get a laugh with, "I don't fly because of my religion. I'm a devout, orthodox coward!"

Audiences howl when Jackie Kannon cracks, "You can be sure no enemy will ever land in New York. They could never find a parking place!"

And Jonathan Winters used to break 'em up with, "I just flew in from California. No plane—I had 200 pigeons Scotch-taped to my arms!"

Me, I have something to say, too. I get airsick merely by licking an airmail stamp!

Did you ever realize there's still a lot of risk in aviation? It's the taxicab ride through the city's traffic to the airport!

And sometimes it would take me less time to fly over the Atlantic than to reach the studio by the Hollywood Freeway!

I remember one time my plane was stopping at Las Vegas on the way home. The stewardess made a brief announcement:

"We are now approaching the gambling capital of the world. Will all passengers please fasten their money belts!"

But Las Vegas is a wonderful town. You can't beat the climate, the food, or the games of chance. I even lost money on the stamp machine!

During a cross-country plane trip, not long ago, one of our engines caught fire. Everybody began to panic. One of the passengers yelled to his seat-mate, "We've got to quiet 'em down. Can you do something religious?"

The man nodded confidently, and began to pass around a plate for collection!

The day before that trip, one of my friends at the studio suggested that I take the train because planes were unsafe. "Aw, come on now," I said, "Statistics prove they're the safest method of travel."

"Not for me. I'd still take the train," he said.

"Oh, yeah? What about that train wreck last week?"

"I didn't hear about it."

"You didn't read about it in the papers? A train was going 100 miles an hour when all of a sudden—WHAMMO!" "What happened?"

"A plane crashed down on it!"

Which reminds me of one of Morey Amsterdam's favorites. "Does this train stop in San Francisco?" asks the passenger.

"It'd better," answers the conductor, "otherwise there's going to be an awfully big splash!"

Speaking of Morey, somebody once asked him how to become a comedian. "You take a mouthful of marbles, and one by one you drop them," Morey answered. "And when you've lost all your marbles, you're a comedian!"

Or, as Joey Adams explains himself, "I became a comedian when my father gave me a rocking chair. I loved that rocking chair. I used it day and night. One day, it broke, and when they discovered I was off my rocker, they knew I was a comedian!"

And here's how Bob Hope describes Phyllis Diller. "She's a lady with a thousand gags. I mean, one thousand and two—I forgot her face and figure!"

Remember two of Phyllis' famous lines? "I call my neighbor Mrs. Clean. I finally found out why her laundry looks so much whiter than mine. She washes it!"

And "When I go to the beach in a bikini, even the tide won't come in!"

Anyway, when I recently got an invitation to star in a Command Performance in Washington, Renfrew said he didn't want to stay at the White House. He wasn't too crazy about the neighborhood.

I didn't know what to expect, so I packed some extra luggage. When we reached the airport, that little ring-a-ding said, "Uncle Jer, why didn't you take the piano, too?"

"Now don't be sarcastic, you little wise guy," I said.

"I ain't being sarcastic," he snapped back. "You left the tickets on it!"

I drove back fast and got them. This was Renfrew's first plane trip, so I told him chewing gum would keep his ears from popping during the flight. We were about to land when I turned and asked him how he felt.

"The chewing gum worked great," he answered, "but how do I get it out of my ear?"

That kid! He reminds me of an incident in one of Woody Allen's routines. "They kidnapped me when I was a boy," said Woody. "Soon as my father got the ransom note, he sprung into action. He rented out my room!"

I wonder if I would?

Jerry

YES, IT'S TRUE—if you join the Columbia Record Club now, you may have ANY 12 of these records for only $2.86. And all you have to do is agree to buy as few as ten records (at the regular Club price) during the coming two years.

That's right!—you'll have two full years in which to buy your ten records. After doing so, you'll have acquired 22 records—but you'll have paid for just half of them... that's practically a 50% saving off regular Club prices!

AS A MEMBER you will receive, every four weeks, a copy of the Club's entertaining music magazine. Each issue describes the regular selection for each musical interest and almost 300 other records... hit albums from every field of music, from scores of record labels.

If you do not want any record in any month—just tell us so by returning the selection card by the date specified... or you may use the card to order any of the records offered. If you want only the regular selection for your musical interest, you need do nothing—it will be shipped to you automatically. And from time to time, we will offer some special albums, which you may reject by returning the special dated form provided—or accept by doing nothing.

RECORDS SENT ON CREDIT. Upon enrollment, the Club will open a charge account in your name... you pay for your records only after you have received them. They will be mailed and billed to you at the regular Club price of $4.98 (Classical and occasional special albums somewhat higher), plus a mailing and handling charge.

FANTASTIC BONUS PLAN. As soon as you complete your enrollment agreement, you will automatically become eligible for the Club's generous bonus plan, which entitles you to one record of your choice free (plus 25¢ for mailing and handling) for every one you buy thereafter!

SEND NO MONEY—JUST THE COUPON. Write in the numbers of the twelve records you want, for which you will be billed only $2.86, plus mailing and handling. Also indicate the type of music in which you are mainly interested.

COLUMBIA RECORD CLUB, Terre Haute, Indiana

Columbia Record Club, Terre Haute, Indiana 47808

Please accept me as a member of the Club. I've indicated below the twelve stereo records I wish to receive for only $2.86, plus mailing and handling. I agree to purchase ten records during the coming two years, under the terms outlined in this advertisement. I may cancel membership any time thereafter. If I continue, I will be eligible for the Club's generous bonus plan.

Just imagine your friends shock when they walk into your room and see the "Monster" reaching out—bigger than life—Frankenstein, the original man-made monster, that creation of evil genius that terrorized the world. A giant 7 feet tall, his eyes glow eerily as his hand reaches out—as awful and sinister as the wildest nightmare. Yes—Frankenstein is 7 feet tall, in authentic colors on durable polyethylene, and so lifelike you'll probably find yourself talking to him. Won't you be surprised if he answers? Comes complete with eyes that glow even in the pitch dark for a special thrilling chill.

Boney the Skeleton. And then there is Boney—stark scary with nothing left but his bare bones. A 7 foot monster out of the grave—his bones white, his eyes staring—even glowing in the dark.

Money Back Guarantee.

Just send $1.00 plus 25c to cover postage and handling for each monster you want. Your money back if not satisfactorily horrified.

MAKE MONEY GET PRIZES

with Fast Selling American Seeds

Take your choice of 100 wonderful prizes. You can earn as many as you want. Most prizes shown here and many more in our Big Prize Book are given WITHOUT COST for selling just one 48-pack order of American Vegetable and Flower Seeds at 25¢ a pack. Some of the larger prizes require more sales or extra money as explained in the Big Prize Book.

Send NO MONEY, We Trust You

Everybody wants American Seeds. They're fresh and ready to grow. You'll sell them quickly to family, friends and neighbors. Many boys and girls sell their packs in one day. You can too — and get your prize at once. Or, if you want money instead of a prize, keep $4.00 for every 48-pack order you sell.

USE THESE COUPONS ONLY

To order your seeds, fill out one of these coupons and mail in an envelope to:
