LISTENERS APPRAISE A COLLEGE STATION

That's the title of the current publication of the Federal Radio Education Committee, published in co-operation with the United States Office of Education. The station is WOI. There's a lot of pertinent material in the publication and if you don't have a copy, you should get one. If you have one and have overlooked reading it, pick it up now in your spare time.

LISTENER SURVEY IN INDIANA

A review of a large radio listener survey made in approximately 85,000 personal interviews throughout certain sections of Indiana is carried in the May 1st issue of BROADCASTING. The complete published report will soon be ready for distribution. The survey was conducted in conjunction with the U.S. Office of Education. It was supervised by Bob Allen, director of Indiana U. radio programs and Prof. Lee Norvell, director of Radio. Bob's promised us a copy, but haven't seen it yet personally.

FM APPLICATION BY MICHIGAN

Waldo Abbot, Director of Broadcasting Service at the University of Michigan, reports that they have applied for a frequency modulation license. Also sends his regrets to NAEB members for his absence in Columbus earlier this month.

SATELLITE STUDIO EQUIPMENT

Under the heading listed above, Grant S. Feikert, Chief Engineer of KOAC, Oregon State College, has an article in the May issue of COMMUNICATIONS. Engineers and others will find this interesting reading and helpful for solving similar problems.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

Education for the Common Defense is the general theme for the twentieth annual observance of American Education Week, November 10 - 16. Willard E. Givens, executive secretary of the National Education Association, says that "active support...will be a real service to the common defense in America during the present world situation." Complete information is available at NEA headquarters, 1201 Sixteenth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

FCC APPOINTMENTS

The Federal Communications Commission has announced the appointment of Telford Taylor as general counsel, to succeed William J. Dempsey upon the latter's entering private practice. Mr. Taylor, who is a special assistant to the Attorney General, joined the Commission's legal staff immediately as special counsel.

The FCC also announced the appointment of Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., as assistant general counsel, to succeed William C. Koplovitz. Mr. Rauh has resigned as assistant general counsel of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor to assist Telford Taylor who, on May 6, was announced to become general counsel of the Commission, vice William J. Dempsey, who will enter private practice with Mr. Koplovitz.

KFUC MOVES FORWARD

On April 22, the Board of Control of Concordia Seminary and the KFUC Radio Committee in a joint meeting resolved to apply for a new frequency, namely 830 kilocycles. This was a result of an amicable agreement between KFUC and KSD. The Federal Communications Commission, too, was very desirous of finding a solution to the St. Louis problem. Therefore, on May 8 the Commission assigned the new frequency to KFUC without a hearing to become effective no later than July 1. KSD will have unlimited time on the frequency 550, which we have been sharing with them for many years.

FCC ACTIONS

WCAD, St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y. was granted special temporary permission to operate 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on May 18th in order to broadcast Moving-Up Exercises at the University. (May 13).

WHA, University of Wisconsin, applied to modification of license to change frequency from 940 kc. to 830 kc.

REMEMBER FALL MEETING

Remember, the Fall convention will be held September 6 and 7 in Chicago in accordance with action taken May 1 at Columbus.
