MONROE:

Hello, and how do you do, everybody!
Another Saturday night has come around,
and the Camel Caravan is rolling again.
The first stop is Portland, Oregon, where "Variety" reports that the leading disc-jockey request of the week is our recent recording of "Some Day"! 1.40

MONROE: Thank you. Mr. Conover, why that strange smile on your face?

HUGH: Oh, nothing at all, Maestro. It just happens I was talking to your mother the other day....and I found out your middle name.

MONROE: My middle name! Now, Hugh, don't go blabbing it around! Even Time Magazine didn't mention it in the ~~Give me a break! I never did anything to you!~~
Please stay they did about me and the gang this week.

HUGH: If I promise not to tell, will you sing one of my songs?

MONROE: You mean those boat-up ballads you write...?

HUGH: Well, if that's the way you feel about it....ladies and gentlemen, Vaughn Monroe's middle name is....

MONROE: Hugh....don't! Please! I'll sing every song you write! I promise!

HUGH: That's different. Here....this is my latest ballad... a romantic little thing called: "Your Lips Were Meant For A Canoe In The Moonlight...They Were Never Meant For Lips". Start singing, Vaughn.....

MONROE: Well, not right now, Hugh. This is the spot in the show I've reserved for our guest...Miss Toni Arden. Sit back, customers...light up a Camel....and let this pretty gal show you why she's becoming a big name on Columbia records. Her tune is the number-one choice of the fans in Boston this week, according to "Variety"... "Don't Cry, Joe". Toni.....? 555

GIRLS: Not long ago, record fans were all requesting a tune called, "Riders In The Sky" -
The Maestro then sang another Western ditty,
Now that's the one that's riding high!

From California to New York,

From Texas up to Maine -

In 12 big cities, near and far,
They want to hear.... "Mule Train"!

CONOVER: Friends, here's an interview, on tape, that (Live) will interest you.

CONOVER: Vaughn, I'd like you to meet Mr. Joe Bayard.

MONROE: Hello, Mr. Bayard!

BAYARD: H'ya, Vaughn!

MONROE: Where are you from?

BAYARD: Chicago! I'm a sales rep.

CONOVER: Vaughn, Mr. Bayard made the Camel thirty-day test under the supervision of a well-known throat specialist.

BAYARD: That's right!

MONROE: Will you tell us how it worked?

BAYARD: Sure! I smoked only Camels for thirty straight days ... at the same rate I usually smoke.

MONROE: Which is ...?

BAYARD: About a pack and a half a day.

MONROE: I see ...

BAYARD: Each week, I went to see the throat specialist.
He examined my throat carefully and at the end of the thirty days he told me he found no throat irritation at all from smoking Camels!

MONROE: What do you say to that?

BAYARD: Well, I'm convinced that Camels are the best cigarette I ever smoked! They have a wonderful taste and they're cool and mild.

MONROE: It may interest you to know that that's just how I feel about Camels myself! Thanks a lot, Mr. Bayard.

CONOVER:
(Live) From coast to coast, hundreds of people made the same test as Mr. Bayard. They smoked only Camels for thirty days, averaging one or two packs a day. Each week, their throats were examined by noted throat specialists. These doctors reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

MONROE: Thank you. We take you now to the campus of Camel Caravan University, to hear some of the late football scores.

HUGH: Vaughn, I've just decided .. I think I'll announce the scores tonight.

MONROE: Sorry, Hugh, this is my department. Every Saturday night, I always HUGH: Oh, is that so? Ladies and gentlemen, would you like to hear Vaughn Monroe's middle name?

MONROE: Hugh, don't! Go ahead .. announce the scores! Lead the orchestra ... anything, but not that!

HUGH: Okay .. and say "sir", from now on. Now, let's see ... This afternoon, it was Notre Dame over Southern California, 32 to 0 ... Boston College ^{Plenty of T.O.'s} racked up to win over Holy Cross, 26 to 0 ... North Carolina, 14, Virginia, 7 ... and at Philadelphia, the score at the final whistle was Army 38, Navy, 6! Do you wish to say something, Monroe?

MONROE: Please, sir .. I just wanted to add that the cheers of 100,000 fans rocked the Municipal Stadium in Philly during the game between West Point and Annapolis ... and they sang as only loyal followers of Army and Navy can sing! The Camel Caravan is proud to echo those songs tonight!

CONOVER: Yes, smoke Camels and see how mild, how full-flavored, how thoroughly enjoyable Camels are!

2nd ANNOUNCER: Among the millions who enjoy Camels are many, many doctors. More doctors smoke Camels than any other cigarette, according to a nationwide survey. One hundred thirteen thousand, five hundred and ninety-seven doctors were asked what cigarette they smoked.
 The brand named most was Camel!

HUGH: Vaughn, I hope you have your fleece-lined mittens, fur ear muffs and red flannels all packed.

MONROE: Sure have, Hugh. We're going to need them when we hit the road again next week.

HUGH: Yes sir - Bridgeport, tomorrow night; Utica Monday night; Watertown, N. Y. Tuesday; Manchester, New Hampshire, Wednesday; Lewiston, Maine, Thursday; and Providence Friday... Boy, you'll get plenty of cold weather and snow on that route.

MONROE: That's all right with us. We get our biggest crowds when it snows.

HUGH: Really?

MONROE: Yep.. That proves what Irving Berlin said.. There's no business like snow business.. Anyway folks, for our Camel special tonight we'd like to give you an old favorite that folks always call for on the one-nighters. It's...

HUGH: Hold it, Vaughn.. Hold it! You seem to be forgetting, I pick the tunes on this show, MONROE: Says who?

HUGH: Ladies and gentlemen... Vaughn's middle name is...

MONROE: Please, Conover... Sir... Your majesty.. go right ahead.. Pick a tune.

HUGH: That's different... Folks, Vaughn and the orchestra and chorus will now present one of my favorite songs.. "Alice Blue Gown."

MONROE: Oh sir, that's exactly the song we were thinking of.. Thank you indeed.

MONROE:

Well, that's as far as the Camel Caravan goes tonight, friends...but next Saturday, after our tour of one-nighters, we'll be back in Times Square New York, for another half-hour of tunes from Variety's disc jockey list, plus a couple of oldies. In the guest department we'll have Jean Brooks, and I hope you'll all be tuned in.

On Monday night I hope you'll all be listening to the Bob Hawk show when my good friend Bob will be looking for the Lomac of the Week. So, for lots of laughs and lots of prizes don't miss Bob Hawk on most of these same stations Monday night.

Until we meet again...this is Vaughn Monroe wishing you pleasant dreams...and...won't you have a Camel?
